Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed }
 Protestant Dutch Church, } George H. Fisher.(4)

The Stated Clerk reported that he had received information of the organization of nine new Presbyteries, viz., the Presbytery of Lewes, according to the order of the last Assembly; the Presbytery of Potomac, by the Synod of Baltimore; Presbytery of Roanoke, by the Synod of Virginia; Presbytery of Omaha, under the order of the last Assembly, to be connected with the Synod of Southern Iowa; Presbytery of Western Reserve, by the Synod of Ohio; and the Presbyteries of Hillsboro', Bloomington, and Saline, by the Synod of Illinois.

On motion, these Presbyteries, and the Commissioners from them, were enrolled.

It was also reported, that several ministers and ruling elders were present without commissions, or with informal commissions; whereupon a Committee on Elections was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Phelps, Loomis, and Watson, to whom all such cases were referred.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet at 4 o'clock P. M. Closed with prayer by the Moderator.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

Dr. Phelps, from the Committee on Elections, reported that W. C. Dunlap, from the Presbytery of Eastern Texas; John Lilley, from the Presbytery of Creek Nation; D. T. Stuart, from the Presbytery of Louisville; and Thomas R. Welch, from the Presbytery of Arkansas, ministers; and John Johnston, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, were present with defective commissions; also, that John Todd, N. C. McFarland, D. D. Travis, and P. B. McGoodwin, ruling elders, present without commissions, had all given satisfactory evidence of their due appointment; and the Committee recommended that they be regularly enrolled.

The report was adopted.

The Stated Clerk announced that he had official information of the organization of a new Presbytery in the foreign missionary field, called the Presbytery of Siam. On motion, it was enrolled in connection with the Synod of Albany.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of officers; and the Rev. Dr. W. L. Breckinridge was unanimously chosen Moderator; and the Rev. Joseph R. Mann unanimously chosen Temporary Clerk.

On motion of D. Stevenson, the time for meeting of the Assembly was fixed at 9 A. M. and 3 P. M.; and the time of adjournment at 12 M. and 6 P. M.

On motion of S. J. P. Anderson, it was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, to receive the Annual Reports of the several Boards of the General Assembly; the order of the day for Saturday next, at ten o'clock, to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Church Extension Committee; Monday next, at the same hour, to hear that of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions; Tuesday next, that on the Board of Domestic Missions; Wednesday next, that on the Board of Publication; Friday next, that of the Board of Education.

On motion of John C. Lowrie, it was Resolved, That the regular sermons on behalf of the several Boards, be preached on the evenings of the days allotted to the hearing of these reports respectively.

On motion of E. P. Humphrey, it was made the second order of the day for to-morrow at ten o'clock, to receive reports from the Theological Seminaries under the care of the Assembly.

On motion of R. H. Chapman, it was Resolved, That the Assembly spend the first half hour of their meeting in the morning, each day, in devotional exercises.

It was ordered, that 750 copies of the Roll be printed for the use of the members.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer.

FRIDAY MORNING, May 20.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises for half an hour. The Minutes of the preceding day were then read and approved.

J. H. Nixon, Duncan McGregor, George Hurlburt, Hamlet Totten, N. C. Burt, James Springer, J. Irwin Smith, John Montgomery, David Banks, W. B. Carter, R. G. Davidson, A. B. McCorkle, A. W. Lyon, and Jeremiah W. Clapp appeared, and were enrolled as additional Commissioners.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, calling for the Annual Reports of the various Boards. These were presented by the respective Secretaries, and distributed for the use of the members; excepting the Report from the Board of Education, which was postponed for a few days, in consequence of the providential detention of the Corresponding Secretary.

The second order of the day was next taken up, calling for the annual reports from the Theological Seminaries. These were presented from the Seminaries at Princeton, Allegheny, and Danville, respectively, and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Moderator then announced the following committees, viz.

On motion of A. G. Hall, the Assembly proceeded to appoint a place for the meeting of the next General Assembly. Nominations were made, of Rochester, Philadelphia, and Memphis. The roll was called, and 236 votes were given for Rochester, 45 for Philadelphia, and 30 for Memphis.

It was accordingly determined, that the next Assembly be called to meet in the First Presbyterian Church of Rochester, New York, and at the usual time.

On motion of B. M. Smith, it was made the second order of the day, for to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, to call for Reports on Systematic Benevolence, Statistical Reports, and Narratives on the State of Religion.

On motion of E. P. Humphrey, it was Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns to-day, it will be to meet to-morrow morning; allowing this afternoon for the business of Committees.

On motion of J. R. Wilson, as amended successively by motions of A. G. Hall and J. C. Rankin, it was Resolved, That a Special Committee be appointed to revise the present form of Statistical Reports, and suggest to this Assembly such amendments as they may deem advisable.

The Moderator subsequently appointed on this Committee, J. R. Wilson, A. G. Hall and J. C. Rankin, Ministers; and Jonathan Bliss and A. W. Mitchell, Ruling Elders.

D. Gaston presented a Memorial from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, on the subject of collecting means for Church Extension; which was referred to the standing Committee on the Church Extension Committee.

On motion of J. C. Rankin, the Reports from the Presbyteries, on the Overture sent down by the last General Assembly relating to the demission of the Ministry, were ordered to be put into the hands of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, for examination, and report to this Assembly.

S. G. Potts, W. Sheets, and D. Stevenson, were appointed a Committee, to ascertain and inform the Assembly, whether any arrangements can be made, in this or any other house, for the sessions of this Assembly, so as to give room for Reporters, without disturbing the officers on the platform.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer, by B. M. Palmer.

SATURDAY MORNING, May 21.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer, continued, according to previous appointment, for half an hour.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

S. G. Potts, from the Committee appointed to make arrangements for the more convenient accommodation of the Assembly and its officers, reported, recommending that the Assembly remain in the house now occupied, declining the Capitol, which had been generously tendered for our use, and the Masonic Hall, which had been offered at a reasonable price; and that, in order to increase the accommodations of the members, the spectators be requested to occupy the gallery, and the first five ranges of seats on the floor; and that, with the exception of seats for the Reporters, now arranged by this Committee, the seats in the body of the Church be reserved exclusively for the officers and members of the General Assembly.

This report was adopted.

On motion of R. L. Stanton, the Rev. S. T. Wilson, from the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, was introduced, for the purpose of presenting papers in relation to the transfer of this Institution to the care and supervision of the General Assembly.

On motion, these papers were referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries, with instructions to report upon them on Monday next.

The annual report of the Treasurer was presented, and referred to the Committee on Finance. The resignation of S. A. Mercer as a Trustee of the General Assembly, was also presented, and referred to the same Committee.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the report of the Committee on Church Extension, and that of the Standing Committee thereon. The Corresponding Secretary addressed the Assembly, and H. J. Van Dyke followed with the report of the Committee on the Annual Report, and upon the Memorials relating to the general object referred to them; and with an additional resolution offered by himself.

Addresses were made by B. M. Palmer, W. W. McNair, J. R. Wilson, and others.

A discussion arose on the resolution offered by Mr. Vandyke, which continued till the regular time of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by J. R. Wilson.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by James Wilson.

The unfinished business of the morning, on the report of the Committee on Church Extension, was resumed, the question being on the additional resolution offered by Mr. Van Dyke.

B. M. Smith offered an amendment, to the effect that applications for aid in paying the expense of church erection, should be approved by the Presbyteries in which these churches are built, and by the Sessions of the churches to which application is made.

This amendment, and the additional resolution, were ultimately laid on the table; as was also the entire portion of the report which related to the subject of memorials from several Presbyteries, that had been referred to this Committee; and the following part of the report was adopted, viz.

The Church Extension Committee appear to have executed their trust with economy, fidelity, and zeal; and though the funds committed to them have not been in proportion either to the ability of our Church, or the greatness of the work to which Divine Providence has called her, yet the results hitherto reached call for thanksgiving to God, and give an earnest of greater and better things in the future.

Your Committee are deeply impressed with the wisdom in which this scheme of Church Extension was devised, the magnitude of the ends it contemplates, and the imperative necessity of prosecuting it upon a broader and more liberal scale. The report before us reveals some startling facts. Nearly six hundred organized churches within our bounds have no house of their own in which to worship God. The houses of one hundred and sixty-eight more are entirely inadequate to their wants; and not less than two hundred are burdened with debt. In these wide-spread and pressing wants, God calls upon his people, saying "What mean ye, to dwell in your sealed houses, and this house lie waste?" Your Committee, therefore, recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly commend the Church Extension Committee for the fidelity with which they have hitherto watched over the interests committed to them, and note with special satisfaction their efforts to elicit information in regard to the wants of the Church in their department of labour.

Resolved, 2. That we regret the tardiness of the churches to obey the repeated requests of the General Assembly to take collections for this important cause; and hereby solemnly enjoin it upon all the Presbyteries to take some action whereby our directions may be more generally and faithfully executed.

Resolved, 3. We desire and exhort all churches under our care, which are still in debt for their house of worship, to make strenuous efforts for removing this stumbling block, in order that their liberality towards new and feeble churches be not hindered.

Resolved, 4. That, hereafter, a sermon upon the subject of Church Extension be preached before each General Assembly, as in the case of other Boards.

Nominations were then made to fill the vacancies in the Committee on Church Extension; and it was made the first order of the day for Saturday next to hold this election, and that by ballot.

E. D. Macmaster, from the Judicial Committee, presented a report on four judicial cases, which was accepted, and put on the docket.

J. H. Thornwell, from the Committee appointed by a previous Assembly, to revise the Book of Discipline, offered a report in a printed form, copies of which were distributed among the members; and, on motion, it was made the first order of the day for Thursday next to take up this report.

Three hundred copies of a work entitled "Pentecost," having been received from George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia, it was, on motion of A. T. McGill, Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be voted to the donor, and that the Stated Clerk be directed to convey to Mr. Stuart this resolution.

Synodical records were called for, and distributed among the respective committees; and it was made the first order of the day for Thursday next, in the afternoon, to receive the reports.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer by E. P. Humphrey.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 23.

The Assembly met, and was opened with the usual devotional exercises. The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

On motion of E. D. Macmaster, Judicial Case No. 3 was taken up, and the recommendation of the Judicial Committee was adopted, viz.

That John Turbitt have leave to withdraw his appeal from the decision of the Presbytery of Peoria, deposing him from the ministry; because the case has not been presented before the Synod.

B. M. Palmer, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented a report on the papers relating to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest; which was accepted, and on motion of N. L. Rice, it was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

S. R. Wilson, from this Committee, presented the following report, which was accepted; and on a motion to adopt, remarks were made by J. C. Lowrie, W. Speer, A. S. Gardiner, C. A. Spring, D. A. Wilson, and S. Mattoon; until the regular time for adjournment.

The Permanent Clerk announced, that the Rev. Geo. H. Fisher, D.D., from the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, had appeared with proper credentials.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by J. H. Thornwell.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer, by H. Ruffner.

The order of the day for this hour was taken up; the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, upon the papers connected with the transfer of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest. The whole report of the Committee was read, as also were proposals, from different localities, of money and land, towards the endowment of this Institution; and the following resolutions were adopted unanimously, viz.

1. Resolved, That in accordance with the Overtures, emanating from eight Synods, this Assembly does now accept the direction and control of the Seminary, known by the corporate name and style of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

2. Resolved, That this Assembly during its present sessions will decide by a majority of the votes of its members, what place within the limits of these eight Synods be selected as the seat of said Seminary.

On motion of N. L. Rice, it was resolved, to proceed to the choice of a location. Dr. Rice nominated Chicago; Mr. Sheets nominated Indianapolis. A discussion arose on these nominations, which continued till the regular time of adjournment; when the Assembly adjourned to meet tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by H. S. Clarke.

TUESDAY MORNING, May 24.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The second order of the day for Saturday morning last was taken up, and the Presbyteries were called on for reports on Systematic Benevolence, Statistical Reports, and Narratives.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, and that of the Standing Committee thereon. The Corresponding Secretary, G. W. Musgrave, addressed the Assembly on the substance of his report, and the general policy of the Board.

E. P. Humphrey, from the Standing Committee, followed with a report, submitting resolutions, the first and second of which were adopted; the third resolution was read, and the question was on an amendment offered by J. R. Wilson, when, the hour of adjournment having arrived, the Assembly adjourned to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by A. S. MacMaster.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by J. A. Lyon.

On motion of J. A. Lyon, it was

Resolved, That the Moderator be empowered to invite, at discretion, to sit within the bar of this house, such honoured and revered brethren, not members of the body, as to him may seem meet.

The unfinished business on the Report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, was taken up, and the resolutions offered in the report were unanimously adopted, and are as follows:

Resolved, 1st. That it becomes us as a Church, humbly, yet with our whole heart, gratefully to acknowledge the goodness and grace of God, in giving so signal an answer, during the past year, to the prayers of his people, in restraining the wrath of the heathen, taking obstacles out of the way of his servants, preserving their lives, and setting his approving seal to their labours, by accompanying them with the marked and effectual influences of his Holy Spirit.

Resolved, 2d. That the providence of God calls upon the Church, in tones that cannot but be heard, and ought to be heeded, by all her ministers and members, to the exercise of increased liberality in contributing of their substance to the service of Christ, in this particular department of that service; but especially that they should accompany the exercise of this grace with that of prayer to the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth labourers into his harvest; that he would abundantly shed upon them the Spirit of promise, that they may be endued with power for their work; and then pour out the same Spirit in copious effusions upon the nations, that their hearts may be opened to receive the truth in the love of it, that they may be saved.

Resolved, 3d. That the General Assembly highly approve of the efforts made by the Board, to enlist the interest of the children of the Church in the work of Foreign Missions; and they would urge upon all Pastors and Ruling Elders throughout the Church, to instruct the baptized members in their respective congregations in regard to their obligations in this matter, as members of the Church; and upon parents, that they endeavour to train their children to the habitual discharge of these obligations.

Resolved, 4th. That the report of the Board be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee for publication.

On motion, the unfinished business of the morning, on Domestic Missions, was then taken up, the amendment of Mr. Wilson, was laid on the table, and the third resolution was adopted. The fourth resolution was read, and while amendments were proposed and discussed, the previous question was called, on motion of J. J. Gresham, and the resolution was adopted.

The fifth resolution was read, and an amendment moved by B. M. Smith; pending the discussion of which, the Corresponding Secretary was, on motion, invited to speak, if he desired the opportunity.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by J. F. McLaren.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, May 25.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

J. K. Lyle, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to S. N. Martin, minister, and to J. M. Gaston and Dwight J. McCann, ruling elders, to be absent from the remaining sessions of the Assembly. The report was approved.

The Rev. Dr. George H. Fisher, Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, was, on motion, introduced to the Assembly, and tendered the salutations of the body he represented, and assurances of their confidence and joy in the work and prosperity of our Church. The Moderator responded, with reciprocal expressions of confidence and fraternal regard.

On motion of A. T. McGill, the Rev. Dr. John M. Krebs of New York was appointed Delegate of the General Assembly, to attend the next meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, to be held in the city of Albany on the first of June.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, and that of the Standing Committee thereon. R. H. Chapman, from this Committee, presented a report, submitting resolutions for adoption by the Assembly.

On a motion to accept this report, the Corresponding Secretary, W. E. Schenck, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

The report was accepted, and, on a motion to adopt the first resolution, remarks were made by B. M. Smith, S. J. P. Anderson, A. R. Graves, A. R. Banks, and Jonathan Edwards, until the hour of adjournment, when the Assembly adjourned, to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Henry Neill.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer, by Joshua Phelps.

The unfinished business, upon the choice of a location for the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, was taken up and discussed until the regular time for adjournment, when the Assembly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by D. H. Hill.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 26.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The Minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

B. M. Palmer, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented a general Report, which, on motion of B. M. Smith, was adopted unanimously, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully report, that they have received and considered the Annual Reports of the Directors and Trustees of three Seminaries under the care of the Assembly, viz. the Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey; the Western Seminary, at Allegheny, Pennsylvania; and the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky.

The Assembly will learn with devout gratitude the continued prosperity of these cherished institutions, and the tokens of the Divine favour manifest in the increase of students, and in the deep tone of piety prevailing in them all.

Whilst the lives of Professors, Directors, and students, have generally been preserved, the Church is called to mourn over the decease of the Rev. Drs. Janeway and Carnahan in the Direction at Princeton, and of Mr. Samuel Laird in that at Danville—translated to heaven in the ripeness of their age and Christian experience, but whose names will remain in the Church below as "ointment poured forth." The death of a young brother, a student at Allegheny, is recorded, whom the Lord took up higher, just as he had resolved to go far hence to the Gentiles; and whose sudden removal has been sanctified in exciting others in the same institution to take the place of him who has fallen. Indeed, the increasing devotion to the cause of missions in all the schools of the prophets will gratefully be accepted as one of the highest tokens of God's blessing upon them. In this view, the Church will feel the liveliest satisfaction in the knowledge, that during the past year several in these institutions have consecrated themselves to this blessed work, and others are seriously pondering their own duty in the same direction. The revival of religion which has so recently refreshed the Church at large has been equally enjoyed within the sacred walls of their Seminaries, evidenced in the constant attendance upon conference and prayer-meetings, and in active labours for the conversion of sinners. It is highly gratifying to note in connection with this, that the Reports are unusually explicit in commending the diligence of professors and students in their immediate duties, as proved in the searching examinations with which the term has closed.

The financial condition of these important schools is reported to be sound; each having funds securely invested sufficient for current expenses, and each showing a balance in hand at the end of the fiscal year. At Allegheny, the endowment of the Fourth Professorship is progressing, but is not yet completed; and buildings for the accommodation of students are in process of erection through the liberality of one lady. At Princeton preliminary steps have been taken by the Trustees and Directors to provide for the increasing number of their students. At Danville, while the general fund has been increased over eight thousand dollars, and is sufficient for the support of a full Faculty, there is yet a loud and just call for means with which to erect buildings, to enlarge the library, and to endow scholarships. In relation to this whole matter of furnishing all these Institutions with all the appurtenances necessary for the comfort of professors and students, the Committee recommend that the Assembly urge upon the Churches to respond to the efforts made by the Directors of each of the Seminaries, by liberal contributions for the immediate supply of their great and pressing wants.

Three new scholarships have been founded at Princeton, and one at Allegheny. While rejoicing in their increased educational facilities, the Committee would, through the Assembly, call the attention of the Trustees to the terms upon which two of these are reported to have been made; to see that the instruments of conveyance be so executed as to leave no room for future litigation; and that in the failure of the donors and their executors to nominate beneficiaries, the full right to do so shall be vested in the officers of the Seminary.

Passing from these general statements, which apply more or less to all these Institutions, the Committee find a request from the Professors at Princeton, and granted by the Directors of that school, for the re-adjustment of the titles and departments of instruction, conforming them as near as possible to the distribution and arrangement which formerly existed; to wit, that Dr. Hodge shall hold his present chair without change; that Dr. McGill be styled Professor of Church History and Practical Theology—the latter to include all the functions of the ministerial office, viz. Church government, preaching, and the pastoral care; that Dr. Green be Professor of Oriental and Old Testament Literature; and that Dr. Alexander be Professor of Hellenistic and New Testament Literature. This change, desired by the Professors and allowed by the Board, the Committee recommend the Assembly now to confirm.

Only a single item, besides the usual election of Directors, calls for the attention of the Assembly in the Report of Directors at Allegheny. It is found in the following resolution adopted by them:

Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to change the time of closing the Session to the Wednesday preceding the fourth Tuesday in April.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted, and that the term at Allegheny close hereafter at the date specified in the above resolution.

The Directors at Danville report the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in that Institution to be still vacant; Dr. Stratton having declined the appointment of the last Assembly. The Committee recommend that it be made the second special order for Saturday morning to enter into an election to fill this vacancy.

The Committee finally recommend that these Reports be published, as usual, in the Appendix to the Minutes.

On motion of B. M. Palmer, it was made the second order of the day for Saturday morning next, to elect a Professor in the Theological Seminary at Danville. Nominations were called for, and W. L. Breckinridge was nominated.

The Assembly then engaged in prayer, being led by James H. Thornwell, at the call of the Moderator.

It was also made the order of the day for Saturday, immediately after this election, to elect Directors for the various Seminaries under the care of the Assembly, and nominations were made.

It was ordered also, that elections be then made to fill vacancies in the different Boards; and nominations were made for the Board of Publication.

The order of the day for 10 A. M. was then taken up—the Report of the Committee of Revision on the Book of Discipline.

J. H. Thornwell presented an exposition of the leading principles on which the revision was conducted; and the report was accepted.

A motion was made by J. R. Wilson to send down this report as printed and amended, in the ordinary form of an overture to the Presbyteries.

E. P. Humphrey moved, that it be re-committed to the same committee, with enlargement by the appointment of others.

The question was on this motion, when the Assembly adjourned to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by A. T. McGill.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by J. M. Stevenson.

On motion of B. M. Smith, the order of the day was postponed, in order to take up the unfinished business, on the location of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

After a brief continuance of the discussion, the previous question was called on motion of D. H. Cummins; and the Assembly proceeded to vote, ordering that the roll be called; and, at the instance of one-third of the members, that the names be recorded in connection with this vote.

On motion, A. T. McGill was excused from voting, at his own request.

The vote was as follows, viz.

For Chicago—G. A. Bowman, J. H. Nixon, G. W. McMillan, H. W. Morris, S. Mattoon, S. B. Edwards, Duncan McGregor, J. G. K. Truair, L. Merrill Miller, Joseph E. Nassau, Alexander T. Resolutions were offered, severally, by R. L. Stanton and James W. Johnston, touching the procedure which the Assembly should take in relation to the grants and franchises accruing from this decision; and, on motion of B. M. Smith, these, as well as the arrangements for immediately organizing the institution, were referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries; and Messrs. Giles, Kennedy, Bliss, and Simpson were added to this Committee.

On motion of Jonathan Edwards, the unfinished business on Domestic Missions was taken up, and the Corresponding Secretary was heard, and the discussion continued till the hour of adjournment, the question being on the amendment offered by B. M. Smith to the fifth resolution submitted by the Committee.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer by Henry Perkins.

FRIDAY MORNING, May 27.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of the preceding day were read, amended, and approved.

It was ordered, that members of the Assembly who were absent yesterday, when the vote was taken on the location of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, be permitted to record their names, inasmuch as it cannot change the result.

Samuel Haskell, C. R. Gregory, H. S. Clarke, John Kerr, Robert Sutton, D. T. Stuart, R. W. Allen, and A. W. Rand, voted for Chicago; and J. G. Miller voted for Indianapolis, making the total of votes for Chicago 251, and for Indianapolis 71.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up; the Annual Report of the Board of Education and that of the Standing Committee thereon.

The Corresponding Secretary, C. Van Rensselaer, offered remarks on the printed report and the general interests of this Board.

J. A. Lyon, from the Committee, followed with a report, submitting resolutions for adoption by the Assembly.

The report was accepted; and on a motion to adopt it, remarks were made by L. Merrill Miller, A. R. Graves, B. M. Smith, J. B. Mitchell, and A. S. MacMaster; it was amended on motion of S. C. Alexander, so as to include in the seventh resolution, "the rising generation, and especially the baptized youth of the Church," and on motion of J. E. Nassau, so as to substitute "calling" for "profession" in the ninth resolution; and the resolutions were adopted as follows, viz.

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly learn with gratitude the general success that has attended the operations of the Board of Education during the past year, as evinced both by the increase of candidates and funds.

2. Resolved, That the best hope of continued and enlarged success in the Church's operations in this department, as well as every other, is under God in prayer; and the Assembly earnestly recommend to all ministers, to give increased attention to this subject in the devotions of the sanctuary.

3. Resolved, That one of the means of success in the education of Candidates for the Gospel Ministry, consists in the faithful and interested supervision of the Presbyteries; and as such supervision implies the possession, on their part, of definite knowledge of the progress of all candidates in their studies, and of their general qualifications for the sacred office, it be recommended to the Presbyteries to consider the propriety of obtaining, at least once a year, from the teachers and professors, where the candidates are pursuing their studies, a report on such points and in such form as such Presbytery may deem best.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly are gratified to learn of the establishment of so many Academies under the care of Presbyteries, in addition to many others under the management of Presbyterians, and urge continued attention to the training of the youth of the Church and the country in the principles of the Bible. And this Assembly further testify their continued interest in the "Ashmun Institute," under the care of the Presbytery of New Castle, and rejoice that the first fruits of that Seminary consist in the education of three missionaries for Africa, who are now on the deep, crossing over with the Gospel message to their brethren in that benighted continent.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly cherish with increased affection and regard, the system of collegiate education, which, from time immemorial, has engaged the energies and prayers of Presbyterians; and while they believed that new colleges should be established to meet the educational demands of Providence, they think that very great care and prudence are requisite in locating and in founding these institutions; and particularly do the Assembly recommend to the friends of the colleges already in existence, to endow them fully; in the mean time, to avoid debt; to raise the standard of scholarship; and to pay due regard to the amount of religious influence and instruction; and generally to endeavour to make every college within the bounds of the Church worthy of the ancient form of Presbyterianism; suited to co-operate with Theological Seminaries in increasing the power of ministerial education, and able to meet the wants of the country and the world.

6. Resolved, That this Assembly renew their recommendation to parents, in consecrating their children to God, and training them to become worthy members of the Church; to dedicate such as in their judgment possess the requisite qualifications, to the holy office of the ministry.

7. Resolved, That this Assembly appoint the last Thursday of February as a day of special prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the rising generation, and especially the baptized youth of the Church, the officers and students of colleges, academies, and all institutions of learning in our own, and in foreign lands, and earnestly recommend that it be faithfully observed throughout our Zion; and they furthermore recommend to the churches to unite alms with their prayers, and to take up collections on that day for the object specified in the preamble of this report.

8. Resolved, That all the pastors and ministers of the Church be requested to preach once, at discretion, during the year, on a call to the gospel ministry, setting forth the claims of both the Church and the Pulpit—that is, to portray the crying destitutions of our land, and at the same time, to hold up for consideration such things as will recommend the gospel ministry as a profession, in order that parents and youth may give its claims a respectful hearing.

9. Resolved, That we earnestly urge Presbyteries, and "Committees ad interim," to guard with a becoming caution, and a firm vigilance, the door to the holy office of the ministry, so as not to admit to that sacred calling, men wanting in mental and moral qualifications for its high and holy functions.

B. M. Palmer, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented a report on matters relating to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, which had been referred to this Committee yesterday. This report was, on motion of A. T. McGill, made the first order of the day for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by W. C. Dana.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by James C. Watson.

The order of the day, the unfinished business on the report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, was taken up, and the following resolutions, after some verbal amendments, were adopted, viz.

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly does hereby accept the donation of one hundred thousand dollars, made by Mr. Cyrus Hall McCormick to them for the endowment of four Professorships in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest, about to be established by this Assembly, and upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned.

Resolved, 2. That the thanks of this General Assembly be tendered to Mr. C. H. McCormick for his munificent donation; and that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Mr. McCormick by the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, 3. That the offer of forty-five acres of land from other gentlemen of Chicago, under certain specified conditions, together with all similar offers, be referred to the Board of Directors to be elected, to be accepted or not at their discretion.

Resolved, 4. That the Board of Directors of the said Seminary, for whose appointment provision is made in the constitution herewith submitted, be and they hereby are directed to take such measures as may be found proper and expedient to procure the legal transfer and safe investment of all the property of said Seminary; and for that purpose to procure from the Legislature of Illinois such legislation as may be necessary to effect this object.

Resolved, 5. That it be the first order of the day for Monday afternoon to elect Professors to fill the four chairs in the Seminary.

The plan submitted with this resolution was objected to by B. M. Smith and others, and it was, on motion of A. T. McGill, as amended by motion of B. M. Palmer,

Resolved, That it be committed to a Special Committee, to consider and propose an adjustment of these chairs.

B. M. Smith, E. P. Humphrey, J. H. Thornwell, S. J. Wilson, and A. T. McGill, were appointed this Committee, and leave was given them to withdraw.

The constitution of this Seminary was then read and adopted.

It was also

Resolved, That immediately after the election of Professors on Monday next, the Assembly proceed to elect Directors of this institution.

Nominations were accordingly made for this election.

The Special Committee to adjust the Chairs, reported the following arrangement, which was adopted, viz.

1st. Didactic and Polemic Theology.

2d. Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

3d. Historical and Pastoral Theology and Church Government.

Dr. James Clark, of Philadelphia; Rev. Mr. Ferris nominated Rev. Dr. Scott, of Cincinnati; Rev. Dr. Williams nominated Rev. J. B. Safford; Rev. Mr. Haskell nominated Rev. J. H. Rice; Rev. Mr. Taylor nominated Rev. R. Elliott Williams, of Allahabad; Rev. Dr. Sparrow nominated Rev. Dr. James A. Lyon; Rev. Mr. McMillan nominated Rev. Dr. T. V. Moore; Rev. Mr. Sutton nominated Rev. Dr. John F. McLaren; Rev. Mr. Grier nominated Rev. Dr. E. C. Wines; Rev. Mr. Charles nominated Rev. Dr. James W. Alexander.

On motion of A. S. Gardiner, it was Resolved, That it shall be in order to receive nominations up to the hour of election.

It was, on motion of George C. Heckman,

Resolved, That in the election these Chairs be filled successively, in the order reported by the Special Committee.

Prayer was then offered by the Moderator.

On motion of B. M. Smith, it was made the first order of the day for Monday morning next, to hear the Report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence.

On motion of A. G. Hall, it was made the second order of the day for Monday morning next, to take up Judicial Case No. 1.

On motion of W. Speer, the unfinished business on Domestic Missions was taken up, and discussed till the hour of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned.

Closed with prayer by A. G. Hall.

SATURDAY MORNING, May 28.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

It was ordered, on motion of W. G. Taylor, that the names of C. Van Rensselaer and R. E. Williams, be withdrawn from the list of nominations for the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

It was also ordered, on motion of A. T. McGill, that the Constitution adopted for this Seminary be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

J. L. Williams, from the Committee on Finance, made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Treasurer's accounts, which were referred to them, have been examined, compared with the books of the Treasurer, and found correct.

A letter from S. A. Mercer, announcing his resignation of his office as a member of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, having been referred to the Committee on Finance, they recommend that the resignation be accepted.

J. R. Wilson, from the special committee to revise the Statistical Tables, made a report, which was accepted; and a motion was made to adopt it. Various other motions followed, until the business was, on motion, suspended in order to proceed with the first order of the day. This was to elect members to fill vacancies in the Church Extension Committee.

On motion of S. J. P. Anderson, the name of A. G. Edwards was substituted for that of M. Newkirk, in the list of nominations.

The Assembly then proceeded to vote by ballot; Messrs. Giles and J. B. Mitchell being appointed tellers. These reported, subsequently, that H. A. Boardman, W. S. Plumer, J. F. Cowan, and W. W. Phillips, ministers; and A. Park, Archibald Gamble, J. A. Maybin, A. G. Edwards, and Joseph Charles, ruling elders, had been duly elected.

The next order of the day was taken up—the election of a Professor in the Seminary at Danville.

The Moderator called J. H. Thornwell to the chair, and retired.

D. H. Cummins nominated John F. McLaren; and the Assembly proceeded to vote by ballot. Messrs. Lyle, Carter, Lee, and Barksdale, were appointed tellers, who subsequently reported that W. L. Breckinridge had received 179 votes; John F. McLaren, 17; scattering 3; blank 5.

On motion of J. F. McLaren, it was then declared that W. L. Breckinridge is unanimously elected to be Professor of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in the Theological Seminary at Danville.

E. P. Humphrey and James A. Lyon were appointed a committee to inform him of this election.

The Assembly then proceeded to elect Directors for the various Seminaries under its care. A. T. Rankin and S. C. Alexander were appointed tellers for Princeton; L. M. Miller, and R. Sutton, for that at Allegheny; A. S. Gardiner and G. W. Lee for Danville.

According to the return of these tellers respectively, the following persons were duly elected, viz.

For Princeton Seminary—for the term of three years:

MINISTERS.

W. W. Phillips,
John M. Krebs,
Nicholas Murray,
Henry A. Boardman,
John C. Backus,
C. Van Rensselaer,
G. W. Thompson.

RULING ELDERS.

James N. Dickson,
Moses Allen,
John R. Davison.

Also for one year—Thomas U. Smith, Ruling Elder, in place of Judge Fine, resigned.

For the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny—for the term of four years:

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
C. C. Beatty, Samuel McFarren, John Robinson, H. G. Comingo, Joel Stoneroad, George Hill, James J. Brownson.	James Schoonmaker, Thomas McKennan, Robert McKnight.

For the Seminary at Danville—for the term of three years.

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
E. Forman, W. L. Breckinridge, James Smith, Zebulon Butler, J. J. Bullock, J. L. Yantis, F. G. Strahan, R. McInnis, W. M. Scott.	James N. West, Luther Smith, Samuel E. Hibben, John Todd, Lewis Whiteman, J. J. White, John Thompson, E. H. Porter, B. Monroe.

The next thing in order was the election of persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Foreign Missions, which resulted in the choice of

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
James Hoge, David Elliott, Robert Davidson, Wm. L. Breckinridge, Stuart Robinson, John B. Adger, George Howe, D. V. McLean, William H. Foote, John C. Lowrie, John Thompson, James M. Macdonald, John Stockton, Jonathan Cogswell.	James Lenox, H. Childs, James N. Dickson, Robert Carter, Lebbeus B. Ward, William Rankin, Jr., Alexander Laughlin, Alexander Van Rensselaer, J. G. Shipman, T. H. Nevin, George W. Buchanan, J. P. Berryman, John Hill, M. O. Talman.

A. G. Hall, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. J. J. Janeway.

A. Trask, to fill that of James Adger.

G. Matthews, to fill that of W. Bain.

On motion of C. Macalester, as amended by motion of A. T. McGill, the election of persons to fill vacancies in the Boards of Domestic Missions, and Publication, was postponed, and made the first order of the day for Tuesday next.

Mr. Lyle, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported, that leave has been granted to the following members, to be absent, during the remaining sessions of this Assembly, viz.—N. C. Burt, Daniel Welch, Josiah Guy, James Simpson, John Dorrance, W. W. Robinson, Nathan Culver, Wm. Thompson, J. G. K. Truair, J. R. Porter, J. C. Grier, J. W. Rand, Henry Ruffner, R. Douglass, L. F. Donally, A. C. Conkey.

E. D. Macmaster, from the Judicial Committee, reported Judicial Case No. 5, which was put on the Docket.

On motion of A. R. Graves, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be cordially tendered to those who offered donations for the Seminary of the Northwest, which have not been accepted, in consequence of the decision to make Chicago the place.

A. W. Mitchell presented a report from the Committee of Trustees of the General Assembly, in the case of "Disabled Clergymen, and the Indigent Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen," which was received; and on a motion of J. T. Hendrick, to adopt and publish it in the Appendix to the Minutes,

A. G. Hall moved to amend, by striking out a portion of the report; when the hour having come, the Assembly adjourned to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by R. H. Chapman.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by J. M. Faris.

F. P. Monfort, from the Committee on Mileage, made the following report; which was adopted, viz.

The Committee on Mileage would respectfully report, that $346.00 have been paid into the Treasury, by Presbyteries, for Commissioners' Fund; that 6,439 miles have been travelled, in coming to this Assembly, by Commissioners entitled to draw from that fund, which at 5½ cents per mile, amounts to $316.62, leaving, after payment thereof, in the hands of the Treasurer, a balance of $29.38. They therefore recommend that the Trustees be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer, for said amount, to be paid out by him in sums in accordance with the statement herein presented, less respectively the amount saved by said Commissioners, in journeying to and from the Assembly, through the generosity of railroad companies.

On motion of E. D. Macmaster, it was made the first order of the day for Tuesday afternoon next, to take up Judicial Case No. 2.

The unfinished business on Domestic Missions was then taken up.

The previous question, on motion of John Rowe, was called; and the fifth resolution, reported by the Standing Committee, was adopted.

The sixth resolution was then read, and discussed; and, the previous question being called,

On motion of W. F. Giles, it was adopted.

It was ordered, that the blank in this resolution be filled with seven names, to be selected by the Moderator.

The whole paper was then adopted in form, and is as follows:

Resolved, 1. The General Assembly gratefully recognizes the blessings of the Head of the Church upon its Domestic Missions, and upon the labours of the Board unto which the care of these Missions has been entrusted.

Resolved, 2. The Assembly finds, in the history of the Board, every reason to cherish the settled conviction of the Church, respecting the ordinance of alms-giving, and its proper administration by the office-bearers; and it exhorts all the congregations under its care to maintain this ordinance as a part of religious worship.

Resolved, 3. The Board is instructed to establish, in the city of New Orleans, an Advisory Committee, with a District Secretary, whose duty it shall be to set forward the work of Missions in the Southwest—the details to be arranged by conference between the Board and the said Committee.

Resolved, 4. The Board is also empowered to make a similar arrangement at the Northwest, if on consultation with the brethren on the judicatories in that region, such a measure shall appear to be advisable.

Resolved, 5. The attention of the Board is particularly called to the Pacific coast, as a field of Missions.

Resolved, 6. A Committee of seven members shall be appointed by this Assembly, with instructions to inquire, to confer with the Board, and to report to the next Assembly, what changes in the organization and methods of the Board are necessary, in order to its greater efficiency and wider usefulness. This Committee is particularly charged to report on the expediency of the following measures:

The reduction of the number of members in the Board, and its re-organization, somewhat after the form of the Committee on Church Extension.

The removal of the Board to some place nearer the centre of the Western Missionary field.

The establishment of several Executive Committees, and Corresponding Secretaries, in different parts of the Church—these officers to be invested with co-ordinate powers; or,

The establishment of a single Central Executive Committee, with Advisory Committees, and District Secretaries, as provided herein for the Southwest.

The Committee will consider the question as to how many officers will be needed in the Central Board, and the division of labour among them.

The Committee will also report upon any other matters which they may find within the range of their inquiry.

On motion of H. S. Clarke, D. X. Junkin was appointed to preach the sermon on behalf of Domestic Missions, before the next General Assembly, and R. W. Condict his alternate.

On motion of S. R. Wilson, R. L. Stanton was appointed to preach the sermon on behalf of Foreign Missions; and J. H. Gray was appointed his alternate.

On motion of H. J. Van Dyke, A. T. McGill was appointed to preach on behalf of the Church Extension Committee; and T. M. Cunningham his alternate.

On motion of J. A. Lyon, B. M. Smith was appointed to preach on behalf of the Board of Education, and L. W. Green his alternate.

On motion of R. H. Chapman, S. J. Wilson was appointed to preach on behalf of the Board of Publication, and H. J. Van Dyke his alternate.

On motion of C. Macalester, it was ordered that the travelling expenses of the committee appointed in the sixth resolution of the report on the Board of Domestic Missions, be paid out of the treasury of the Board.

On motion of A. W. Mitchell, the order of the day for Thursday afternoon last, which had been postponed, was taken up, and reports were called for from the Committees on Synodical Records.

The Records of Albany, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Ohio, Cincinnati, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, Nashville, South Carolina, Memphis, and Arkansas, were approved without exception.

The Records of Pittsburgh were approved, with the exception that Ruling

Elders were not called upon for reasons of tardiness, as in the case of Teaching Elders.

The Records of Chicago were approved, with the exception, that on page 52, the record with reference to the report of the Committee on Institutions of Learning is evidently not correct.

The Records of Wisconsin were approved, with the following exceptions:

1. That there are numerous alterations and verbal omissions, and an almost entire omission of punctuation, making it difficult to understand the record in many places.

2. There is great confusion in the record, arising from the neglect to record reports of committees; and from the omission to record, in its proper connection, the action of Synod on said reports, which are sometimes merely alluded to, without any previous record of the appointment of the committee, or any notice of how the business came before Synod.

3. On page 69, there is what purports to be the record of the meeting of Synod for the year 1858, according to adjournment, in which the words "Synod met," are omitted; on account of which omission the record does not show that the Synod met at all. And there is no notice in the record that the Synod was opened with prayer.

The Records of Iowa were approved, with the exception that a statement made on page 169, is unnecessarily repeated on page 174, viz., "The Hon. Lincoln Clark was appointed, &c."

The Committees on the Records of Southern Iowa, Upper Missouri, Mississippi, Texas, the Pacific, and Northern India, reported respectively, that the records of these Synods had not been sent up; and, on motion, these committees were discharged.

Reports on the Records of Buffalo, Baltimore, and Wheeling were made, and put on the docket until the judicial cases from these Synods, now pending, shall have been decided.

On motion of S. J. P. Anderson, it was, by a vote of two-thirds,

Resolved, That the constitution of the Seminary at the Northwest be changed, so as to make the Board of Directors consist of forty, instead of thirty-two members.

Nomination was accordingly made of eight additional names.

Mr. Anderson then moved that the number of Directors in the Seminary at Princeton be also enlarged from thirty to forty, so as to correspond with the Boards at Allegheny and Chicago; and to have one-fourth elected every year.

Mark Hardin objected; and it being required that such a change, by this Assembly, be made by a unanimous vote, it was, on motion of R. H. Chapman,

Resolved, That this alteration be proposed to the next General Assembly.

On motion of B. F. Bittinger, the names of William McLane, Edward Myers, and Pringle Slight, were added to the Metropolitan Church Extension Committee.

On motion of B. M. Smith, the Finance Committee were directed to devise and report some means of paying the necessary expenses incurred by members of the Committee on Revision of the Book of Discipline.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer, by Joseph R. Mann.

MONDAY MORNING, May 30.

The Assembly met, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

The Annual Report of the Union Theological Seminary was presented, and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

N. L. Rice, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported on the returns from the Presbyteries upon the Overture respecting the demission of the ministry, sent down by the last General Assembly, that answers had been received from 108 Presbyteries; of which 19 by regular, and 5 by irregular answers, have replied in the affirmative; and 74 by regular and 10 by irregular answers, have replied in the negative. By the rule in the book, therefore, the overture has been rejected.

This report was accepted and approved.

Overture No. 1, from the Congregation of Glasgow, asking to have their relation transferred from the Presbytery of Allegheny City to the Presbytery of New Lisbon.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 2, from the Presbyteries of Washington and St. Paul, on the appointment of a Concert of Prayer for the conversion of the world.

This Overture is based upon a proposal from the missionary brethren of Northern India, to observe the second Monday of January 1860, and the succeeding week, as a season of special prayer all over the globe, for the conversion of the world. This General Assembly cordially sympathizes with the object contemplated, as it implies the desire that Christians everywhere may more directly regard the missionary and aggressive character of our faith, as it tends to call forth their affections towards each other and towards a perishing world; and especially as it recognizes the great truth of our dependence upon Divine power for the success of the Gospel. We therefore recommend to the churches under our care to observe the time thus specified in such manner as the various Presbyteries or Sessions may direct. Adopted.

Overture No. 3, from Samuel Haskell, in relation to missions amongst the Jews.

The Committee recommend its reference to the Board of Foreign Missions. Adopted.

Overture No. 4, from the Rev. Thos. K. Davis, asking to be transferred from the Presbytery of Stockton to that of Carlisle.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and the report was adopted.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Nassau, in relation to the publication of a volume of Psalms and Hymns with appropriate tunes.

The Committee regard it as inexpedient to entertain this overture.

Adopted.

Overture No. 6, from the Rev. Sayres Gazley, in relation to changes in the language of our Confession of Faith, regarding the doctrine of the Trinity and other doctrines.

The Committee recommend as an answer, that no change in the language of the Confession, respecting the points suggested, is desirable, or consistent with the word of God. Adopted unanimously.

Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of Genesee River, asking a change in the form of government, chapter 10, section 4; in relation to the right of two churches having one pastor to represent them, in the Presbytery and the Synod.

The Committee recommend that it is inexpedient at present to attempt to make the change desired. Adopted.

Overture No. 8, from A. W. Happer, Missionary to Canton, asking for the re-construction of the Presbytery of Canton.

The Committee recommend that the Rev. Dr. Ball, M. D., of the Presbytery of Charleston, and the Rev. Chas. F. Preston, of the Presbytery of Albany, both having received letters of dismissal from their Presbyteries; also any missionary besides, going out under the care of our Board, this ensuing summer, be attached to the Presbytery of Canton; and that they meet and organize in February 1860, or at such other time as may be found convenient. Adopted.

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Holston, in relation to the demission of the ministerial office.

The Committee recommended, that, in view of the answers returned to the overture already sent down to the Presbyteries, it be answered, that it is inexpedient to send this overture down.

On a motion to adopt this report, it was voted as an amendment, that the overture be referred to the next General Assembly, and accordingly, it was so ordered.

Overture No. 10, from the Presbyterian Historical Society, asking the Assembly to recommend to the churches to take up a collection in their behalf.

The Committee recommend the following answer, viz.

The Church of Jesus Christ, as a spiritual body, commissioned only to execute the revealed will of God, can sustain no direct relation to any voluntary associations, however praiseworthy in their aims, formed for the purpose of promoting the interests of art, literature, or secular morality. Where such societies involve no wrong principles, it is a matter of Christian liberty to join them or not join them, encourage them, or otherwise—and therefore the Church should leave them where Christ has left them, to the sound discretion of his people. Adopted.

Overture No. 11. The Report of the Committee was accepted, and put on the Docket.

Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, in relation to the right of ministers, not engaged in the ministerial work, to sit in Church courts.

The Committee offered the following answer, which was adopted, viz.

According to the Constitution of our Church, ministers, as such, whether with or without charge, are of equal powers and privileges. If the defection of any minister from the duties implied in his ordination vows, is serious enough to disfranchise him, it is sufficiently serious to call for the orderly exercise of discipline. The remedy, therefore, for the evil complained of, lies with the Presbyteries, and cannot be reached by any action of the Assembly. Touching the alleged inequality between the elders and the ministers, in our judicatories, it need only be remarked that the number of vacant churches, in a growing land like this, greatly exceeds the number of unemployed ministers; and in the Church at large, the elders could at any time obtain a large majority, if disposed so to do. Apprehending no danger in this direction, and recognizing no antagonism between the teaching and the ruling elders, in the Church, this Assembly sees no reason for special action in the case; leaving the Presbyteries in our large cities, where ministers without charge are prone to collect, to deal with them in an orderly manner, as their wisdom may suggest.

Overture No. 13, from a Presbytery of Puget's Sound, requesting to be recognized by the Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted, and that the Presbytery be enrolled, and attached to the Synod of the Pacific.

Adopted.

Overture No. 14, from the Presbytery of Florida, asking such change of the action of the last General Assembly, in relation to the boundaries of the Synods of Alabama and Georgia, that the western boundary of Walton county, Florida, be the line between the two Synods; thus restoring the church of Euchee Valley to its former connection.

At the recommendation of the Committee, this request was granted.

Overture No. 15, from the Presbytery of Zanesville, on the sanctification of the Sabbath.

The Committee reported the following paper, which was adopted:

The views of the Presbyterian Church, touching the importance, sanctity, and obligation of the Sabbath, are too fully expressed in our Confession, in Acts of the Assembly, in our pulpits, and in the usual habits of our people, to require any statement of them, as if these great things were to be at all thought matters of question among us. "The Sabbath was made for man;" given to him in his estate of innocence; only more necessary for him in his fallen condition; and more carefully to be vindicated as the increase of human wickedness proves our need of it. Yet it is proper to repeat at proper times, the testimony of the Church upon a topic of so great importance, so clearly inculcated in the word of God, and in regard to which so many errors are rife.

At this present time the enemies of the Lord's Day are legion; and they venemously attack its name, its necessity, its authority, and its sacredness. It becomes the Church of God to guard against all these foes. Infidelity of every name of course impugns all that is excellent in piety; and with the unerring instinct of an intense hostility, ever selecting the most vital parts for the fiercest blow, it strikes boldly at the Sabbath. The prevailing forms of fanaticism have no point of agreement among themselves more plain than their disregard of the Sabbath. The larger part of our foreign population, having been trained in communities where the sacredness of the Lord's Day is utterly unknown, endeavour to bring in upon us the wretched immoralities of European society; the tendency of formal churches all around us is to exalt the instituted days of man's wisdom to a sanctity from which they degrade the ordinance of God; while men of active business, hurrying forward their active schemes, and lovers of pleasure of all kinds join to trample upon the Sabbath, and to create a public sentiment unfavourable to its influence. Beyond doubt, the deepest source of all this antagonism lies in the enmity of depraved hearts to that blessed Gospel, of which the Sabbath is an eminent representative.

In view of such things, it seems a duty to keep before the world more fully and plainly, the claims of the Sabbath. We owe it to ourselves, that our own piety may not suffer from contact with so much practical error—that we may not decline from the practices of our fathers, or the faith of the Church—nor be found doing our own ways, finding our own pleasure, and speaking our own words, upon the honourable day which the Lord hath made. We owe it to our families, that the children of our love and of our solemn vows may not only be kept from the evil examples to which they are exposed, but may be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; and that as fully as in former times the Sabbath may be "holy of the Lord," in every household of our beloved Zion. We owe it to the communities around us, that can be degraded by no surer or more rapid course than by the increase of Sabbath desecration; and to the souls of men, to whose salvation the Sabbath is of vital necessity. Finally, we owe it to our fidelity to truth, and to our covenant God, who has given this ordinance to our charge, for his glory and the advancement of his Church.

Your Committee recommend to the Assembly the following resolution:

Resolved, That the attention of the several Presbyteries be directed to this subject, and that they be directed to take such order upon it as their wisdom may suggest, to the end that in all our families and among all our members a better observance of the Lord's Day may be secured; that in all our communities the authority and sacredness of this ordinance may be explained and vindicated, and that the various forms of Sabbath-breaking may meet with wise and wholesome rebuke and restraint.

Overture No. 16, from the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, asking whether the ordinance of baptism ought to be administered to a person before reception into our Church, who presents a certificate of good and regular standing in the New School Presbyterian Church, but who has received only Roman Catholic baptism.

The Committee answer, that the mere fact that a person has been a member of another Church has nothing to do with his original baptism; and in regard to Romish baptism, the memorialists are referred to the action of the Assembly in 1845. Adopted.

Overture No. 17, from White Water Presbytery, asking leave to receive J. A. Devine, a foreign minister.

The Committee recommend that the matter be dismissed, because the requisite papers have not been furnished. Adopted.

Overture No. 18, from the Presbyteries of Lexington and Missouri, asking that the revision of the Book of Discipline be not sent down to the Presbyteries, but recommitted, either to the same or another Committee.

The Committee submitted the overture without recommendation, and, on motion, it was laid on the table.

Overture No. 19. Report accepted, and put on the docket.

Overture No. 20, from the Synod of Pittsburgh, on the subject of Temperance.

The Synod of Pittsburgh desires the Assembly to express its convictions of duty on the subject of Temperance, and to point a plan of concerted action.

The Assembly would refer these memorialists to the action taken by this body in 1829 and 1848, as sufficiently expressing our principles on this subject. The increase of intemperance in various forms, and the dangers that beset especially the young in our community, call, in the opinion of this body, for vigorous efforts of resistance to encroaching evils; but what might be deemed a wise course in one locality might not be so suitable for another, in circumstances greatly different; and we simply call the attention of the Synods and Presbyteries to the entire matter. Adopted.

Overture No. 21, from the Synod of Philadelphia, asking the Assembly to overture the Presbyteries, in relation to a change of the Confession of Faith, chap. 24, sec. 4, in relation to incestuous marriages.

Also, an overture from Aaron Williams, suggesting the change proper to be made in the language of the Confession.

The Committee recommend the Assembly to decide that it is inexpedient to send down the overture; and one of the Committee desires it to be said, that in his opinion the book ought not to be changed. Adopted.

Overture No. 22. Report accepted, and put on the docket.

Overture No. 23, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the General Assembly to cause to be prepared an additional chapter to the Directory for Worship, prescribing the mode for constituting a church.

The Committee report that such action is not necessary. Adopted.

Overture No. 24, from the Synod of Chicago, asking a change of boundary between that Synod and the Synod of Illinois.

The Committee recommend that, as the Synod of Illinois does not appear to have been consulted, that request cannot be properly granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 25, from Angus Johnson, asking whether it is necessary for a Presbytery to place testimony on its records in judicial cases.

The report of the Committee recommended, as amended on motion of B. M. Smith, that it is sufficient that testimony be duly authenticated, and carefully preserved on file, to make it a part of the record. Adopted.

Overture No. 26, a memorial from ministers in Louisville, in relation to establishing a fund for aged and infirm ministers.

The Committee recommended the resolution, that while the Assembly highly commends to the contributions of the churches the fund for the support of superannuated ministers, we are not prepared to favour any scheme for a permanent and invested fund for that end. Adopted.

B. M. Smith, from the Committee on Systematic Benevolence, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

By the Act of the Assembly of 1854, Digest, Part III., § 183, Resol. 4, we are charged with the duty of receiving the reports of Presbyteries, on their compliance with the injunctions of the Assembly on the subject of Systematic Benevolence, presented in that act.

By the roll-call of this Assembly, it appears that of the 168 Presbyteries, 101 have reported a compliance with this injunction, by having directed the ministers and churches under their care to adopt some practicable method for securing the regular contributions of the people to the objects of Christian benevolence recognized by the Assembly. Of the remaining 67, many are newly organized, with extensive and sparsely-settled territories, or on foreign missionary ground; so that very few have appeared entirely negligent in this important matter. Forty-four written reports have been received from as many Presbyteries, affording satisfactory evidence that, under the operation of the Act of Assembly, and other co-operating causes, there is a wide-spread and increasing tendency in our churches to the promotion of proper measures for cultivating the grace of giving.

While feeling that there is great cause for congratulation in view of this state of things, we are not insensible to the necessity of increased diligence on the part of our Presbyteries and churches. We do not believe it advisable for the Assembly to offer to the churches any specific method of making contributions; but to secure a more efficient operation of the Act of the Assembly, which now governs the policy of the whole Church in this matter, we respectfully propose the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Presbyteries which have not taken the action herein contemplated, are directed—First, To require their Stated Clerks to enter on their Spring Docket the calling of the roll of ministers and churches, to ascertain whether they have adopted and carried out any plan for securing the contributions of the people to the objects of benevolence recognized by the Assembly. Second, To report in writing to the Assembly—1. The number of contributions directed to be made by the Presbytery. 2. The number made—arranged under the names of the several objects directed.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Publication is directed to prepare, for the use of the Stated Clerks, blank forms suitable for facilitating their execution of the foregoing orders.

3. That the Board also prepare for the use of the churches, blank forms for contribution, not exceeding three varieties, making a selection for this purpose from such existing methods as may be commended to the attention of the Publishing Committee.

4. That the Board further prepare similar blank forms, not exceeding three varieties, for the use of Sabbath-schools, availing themselves of such methods as may be suggested by persons who have interested themselves in the preparation and use of suitable plans for training our youth to habits of Christian benevolence.

E. B. Miller, from the Committee to whom was referred, by the last General Assembly, the overture from the Presbytery of Genesee River, upon the subject of the corporate organization of churches in the State of New York, reported; and this report was discussed till the hour of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet at three o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The first order of the day, the election of Professors in the Seminary of the Northwest, being called, E. D. MacMaster moved that this business be postponed till the next General Assembly; and the remaining time of the afternoon was occupied with a discussion on this motion.

N. L. Rice yielded the floor long enough to allow a motion to be carried, in the way of reconsideration, that when the Assembly adjourns, it will adjourn to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

At the regular time the Assembly adjourned.

Closed with prayer by J. C. Rankin.

MONDAY EVENING, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

On motion of A. T. McGill, the unfinished business of the afternoon was resumed, N. L. Rice having the floor.

The motion of E. D. MacMaster was at length laid on the table, and the Assembly proceeded to the election of Professors.

The names of W. L. Breckinridge, T. V. Moore, Charles W. Shields, D. X. Junkin, S. R. Wilson, N. Murray, J. C. Lord, Jonathan Edwards, and S. J. P. Anderson, were by permission, and at the request of the nominees, withdrawn from the lists of nomination for the different chairs.

S. R. Wilson, B. F. Bittinger, L. M. Miller, and Samuel Burtis, were appointed tellers to collect and count the votes for the first chair.

While the votes were counted, the Assembly entertained motions to dispose of other business.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Allegheny, Indiana, Georgia, and Alabama, reported respectively, recommending them for approval without exception; and these reports were adopted.

J. B. Mitchell presented the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee of Finance, to whom was referred the subject of the expenses of the Revision Committee appointed by a former General Assembly, would respectfully report the following resolution as the result of their deliberations, viz.,

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Board of Publication have received whatever profit has been realized by the publication of the Confession of Faith and Form of Government, they be, and they hereby are authorized and directed to pay to the respective members of said Committee of Revision, the amount of expenses incurred by them.

Jonathan Edwards and J. C. Rankin offered successively, resolutions, the one as an amendment of the other, touching the notification of members elected to fill vacancies in the Boards, and Directions of the Seminaries, and the time for nominating the same.

On motion, these resolutions were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

On motion of R. H. Chapman, as amended by motion of J. C. Lowrie, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to B. M. Palmer, H. S. Clarke, and T. V. Moore, for the sermons preached before this Assembly on behalf of Foreign Missions, Domestic Missions, and Publication, respectively; and copies of them were requested for publication, under the direction of the several Boards for these objects.

On motion of R. S. Kennedy, it was Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns this evening, it will be to meet at half-past eight o'clock to-morrow morning; and when it adjourns to-morrow, at noon, it will be to meet at half-past two in the afternoon.

The tellers, to collect and count the votes in the election for a Professor, returned, and reported that 214 votes had been given for N. L. Rice; 45 for E. D. MacMaster; 6 for A. G. Fairchild; 4 for John Hall; 4 for N. Murray; 1 for J. F. McLaren; and 3 blank.

It was accordingly declared, that N. L. Rice is duly chosen Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

James H. Thornwell and Stacy G. Potts were appointed a committee to inform him of this election.

The Assembly then proceeded to vote for one to fill the next chair.

Jonathan Edwards, John Todd, D. T. Stuart, and J. B. Mitchell, were appointed tellers.

After they had withdrawn to count the votes, B. M. Smith submitted the following paper, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the following proposition be submitted to the next General Assembly; and meanwhile the attention of the Presbyteries be called to its terms:

That the Constitution of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Domestic Missions, Education, Publication, and the Committee of Church Extension, be modified in the following particulars:

1. That the number of members in these Institutions be limited to sixteen members—eight ruling elders and eight ministers, to be elected in four classes.

2. That said Boards and Committee shall meet on the Thursday of the week succeeding the rising of the Assembly, and thereafter on their own adjournments; provided they do not meet less often than once monthly.

3. That nine members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

4. That the duties devolving on the Executive Committee, as now constituted, shall devolve on the Boards and Church Extension Committee under the proposed organization; and that said Boards and Committee shall send up their records for review to the Assembly.

5. That at each meeting of the Assembly a committee shall be appointed on each of the Boards and Church Extension Committee, which shall consist of one member from each Synod represented in the Assembly; provided the number of members may be sufficient: to which committee, in addition to the ordinary duties performed by it, shall be added that of nominating suitable persons for the office of Secretaries of such Boards and Church Extension Committee.

Resolved, 2. That a committee of one member from each of the Boards and the Church Extension Committee be now appointed to prepare for the consideration of the next Assembly such other and special modifications of the existing Constitutions of said Boards and Church Extension Committee as may be required, should that Assembly proceed to the adoption of the foregoing paper.

R. R. Reed offered resolutions reaffirming the confidence of the Assembly in the Colonization Society, and commending its objects.

After some discussion they were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The tellers returned to report the result of the second election for the Seminary of the Northwest. Willis Lord received 218 votes; J. C. Moffat, 23; Aaron Williams, 7; A. G. Fairchild, 7; J. F. McLaren, 6; E. D. MacMaster, 3; S. R. Wilson, 2; John Hall, 1; S. J. P. Anderson, 1; D. X. Junkin, 1; Thos. E. Peck, 1; blank, 5.

It was therefore declared that Willis Lord is duly chosen to be Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History in the Theological Seminary of the West.

J. R. Wilson and W. Holcomb were appointed a committee to inform him of this election.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 8½ o'clock. Closed with prayer, by A. T. Rankin.

TUESDAY MORNING, May 31.

The Assembly met, and was opened with the usual devotional exercises, continued for half an hour.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Mr. Lyle, from the Committee on leave of absence, reported, that leave has been given to the following members to be absent during the remaining Sessions of this Assembly, viz.

J. W. Clapp, A. Cunningham, Wm. F. Giles, T. H. Nevin, J. L. Valandigham, M. B. Brown, S. J. Watson, A. T. Dobson, D. H. Hill, J. L. Williams, Geo. Hurlbut, J. Storer, Cephas Porter, J. A. Mayes.

On motion of E. P. Humphrey, the unfinished business of last evening, the election of Professors in the Seminary of the Northwest, was resumed, and the Assembly proceeded to cast ballots for one to fill the third chair.

Messrs King, Richardson, Miller and Hall were appointed tellers.

While the votes were counted, P. J. Sparrow presented the report of the Committee on the Narrative, which was adopted, and ordered to be signed by the Moderator, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

On motion of E. P. Humphrey, Judicial Case No. 4, a complaint of Davidson, Koons and others, against the Synod of Baltimore, was taken up from the Docket. The item on the general report of the Committee on this case was read, and then the proceeding was arrested, to hear the report of the tellers on the election of a Professor.

It appeared from this report, that L. J. Halsey had received 206 votes, scattering, 41, and blank, 7. It was then declared that L. J. Halsey is duly elected Professor of Historical and Pastoral Theology, and Church Government in the Seminary of the Northwest.

Joshua Phelps and L. M. Miller were appointed a committee to inform him of this election.

The Assembly then proceeded to cast ballots for one to fill the fourth chair in this institution. The names of Jas. A. Lyon, J. W. Yeomans, and J. H. Rice were withdrawn from the list of nominations, in accordance with their own wishes.

A. Williams, S. M. Grand, J. M. Lowrie and J. Tilghman Hendrick were appointed tellers.

While these retired, to count the ballots, the business on Judicial Case No. 4, was resumed, and on motion of E. P. Humphrey, it was resolved that the case be referred to the next General Assembly, with leave to the appellants to show them that they gave the Synod notice for appeal.

The tellers reported that W. M. Scott had received 165 votes, J. F. McLaren, 45; C. Elliott, 9; T. V. Moore, 2; E. E. Wines, 7; A. G. Fairchild, 3; A. McElwain, 1; J. C. Moffat, 4; E. D. MacMaster, 1; J. W. Alexander, 1; Lyman Atwater, 1; Sayres Gazley, 1; J. M. Faris, 1; blank 4.

It was accordingly declared, that William M. Scott is duly chosen to be Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis in the Seminary of the Northwest.

John W. Scott and William M. Martin were appointed a committee to inform him of this election.

On motion of Joshua Phelps, the Assembly proceeded to the second order of the day, for yesterday afternoon, the election of Directors for the Seminary of the Northwest.

Messrs. J. Bliss, Spraggin, Weaver and Watson were appointed tellers, who subsequently reported that the following persons were elected, viz.

For One Year.

In the place of Henry Potter, deceased, and to fill the vacancy for the term expiring in 1860, D. H. Hill.

In the place of Archibald Robertson, deceased, and to fill the vacancy for the term expiring in 1861, W. E. Dubois.

B. M. Palmer, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, reported as follows on the Annual Report from the Union Theological Seminary, Virginia:

That they have examined the Annual Report of the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, referred to them, after the Reports of the Directors of the other Seminaries had been considered, and find nothing demanding the special attention of the Assembly. They observe with pleasure that the funds of the Institution have been increased during the past year, and new scholarships have been endowed, and that the diligence and piety of the students have commanded the approval of the Faculty and the Board.

The Committee recommends that this report be published, in connection with those of the other Seminaries, in the Appendix to the Minutes.

This report was adopted.

On motion of A. G. Hall, Judicial Case No. 1 was taken up—the appeal of Alexander Fraser against the Synod of Buffalo.

E. P. Humphrey having been called to the chair by the Moderator, for a temporary absence, read the usual notice and injunction to the Assembly in proceeding to sit as a court of Jesus Christ in a judicial capacity.

A. G. Hall requested that Jonathan Bliss might be allowed to act with him as counsel for the appellants. This was granted, and A. T. Rankin and E. B. Miller were recognized as a committee for the defence of the Synod.

The course required in the Book for conducting appeals was then pursued; and at the third stage of the proceeding, a question having arisen respecting the reading of certain printed pamphlets as a part of the evidence, it was, on motion of S. R. Wilson,

Resolved, That, in the judgment of the Assembly, it is not necessary to read the pamphlets in extenso; but counsel can make such use of them as they may see fit in the course of their argument.

The hour of adjournment having come, it was moved and carried that the Court rise; and the Assembly adjourned to meet at half-past two o'clock.

Closed with prayer by S. R. Wilson.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by S. R. Alexander.

Jonathan Bliss, on behalf of himself and others, appointed tellers in taking the vote for Directors of the Seminary of the Northwest, requested leave to vote in the election of persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Domestic Missions, being absent in performing the duty assigned when this election was held.

Messrs. Geary and Barret requested a similar privilege, having been absent in necessary service on a committee.

These applications were granted.

The result of this election was then announced as follows:

For members of the Board of Domestic Missions:

MINISTERS.

P. O. Studdiford, in the place of
 J. J. Janeway, deceased.
 Nicholas Murray,
 C. C. Beatty,
 R. L. Breck,
 Stuart Robinson,
 Joseph McElroy,

LAYMEN.

James Lenox,
 William Nassau, Sr.,
 Jonathan Ogden,
 John Ralston,
 William A. Porter,
 C. C. Beatty,
 F. S. Shields,
 S. C. Day,
 Joseph G. Mitchell.

On motion of A. G. Hall, the unfinished business of the morning on Judicial Case No. 1 was resumed; and the reading of the evidence was concluded.

The original parties being called for, the Moderator decided that the case having arisen without an individual prosecutor, there was but one original party before the Court, who was now to be heard by A. G. Hall and J. Bliss, representing him.

After these members were heard, it was, on motion of N. L. Rice, Resolved, That A. T. Rankin, and E. B. Miller, be heard, at this stage, on behalf of the Synod of Buffalo.

Mr. Rankin spoke till the hour of adjournment.

On motion of J. M. Lowrie, the Assembly determined to meet this evening, at a quarter before eight o'clock, and then adjourned.

Closed with prayer by J. D. Spraggins.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer, by P. J. Sparrow.

N. L. Rice, from the Committee of Bills and Overtures, reported on No. 27 and No. 28, both of which reports were accepted, and put on the Docket.

On motion of A. G. Hall, the unfinished business on Judicial Case No. 1 was resumed, and the Committee, on behalf of the Synod, concluded their defence.

The Moderator then ruled, that the fifth stage of the proceeding was to hear any member of the Synod of Buffalo, present as a Commissioner.

Motions were made, successively, by N. L. Rice, R. S. Kennedy, and E. D. MacMaster, to effect a different procedure; which were all declared to be out of order.

An appeal was taken from the decision of the chair, but was not sustained, and the Assembly proceeded to hear the members of the inferior judicatory, until it was voted, on motion of J. R. Mann, to adjourn.

The Assembly accordingly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning, at 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by B. H. Charles.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, June 1.

The Assembly met, and engaged in the usual devotional exercises, for half an hour.

The minutes of the preceding day were read, and on a motion to approve them, amendments were offered, and discussed, until the previous question was called, on motion of J. R. Bowman, and the minutes were approved.

On motion of B. M. Smith, the unfinished business on the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, was taken up, and it was ruled, (A. T. McGill having been called to the chair by the Moderator, for a temporary absence,) that the question was on the adoption of the first resolution reported.

The Corresponding Secretary, invited on motion of J. Phelps, offered additional remarks and explanations in relation to the action and policy of the Board, and continued till the hour of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this afternoon, at 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by S. C. Alexander.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by D. H. Cummins.

Mr. Lyle, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to the following members, to be absent from the remaining sessions of this Assembly, viz. J. W. Scott, A. D. McLean, James Sinclair, Benj. Clason, B. F. Bittinger, A. Munson, R. F. Patterson, A. T. Summey, J. C. Lowrie, M. M. Fuqua, John Cunningham, J. A. Steel, J. B. Booth, T. R. Welch, Geo. Hubbell, R. H. Byers, Jacob Smith, N. L. Rice, Wm. M. Martin, H. V. Niemeyer, R. McChord, E. C. Clarke, G. L. Kalb, Mark Hardin.

The Moderator announced as the Committee appointed under the sixth resolution, adopted in the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions, E. P. Humphrey, H. A. Boardman, W. W. Phillips, Jas. H. Thornwell, Samuel T. Wilson, Ministers; Thomas Henderson, Jesse L. Williams, Ruling Elders.

And the Committee under the second resolution, in the paper of B. M. Smith, adopted Monday evening last—B. M. Smith, from the Board of Publication, J. B. Spotswood, from the Board of Domestic Missions, Robert Steel, from the Board of Foreign Missions, Wm. H. Green, from the Board of Education, J. C. Backus, from the Church Extension Committee.

The unfinished business on the Board of Publication was taken up, and the Corresponding Secretary concluded.

After some farther discussion, the previous question was called, on motion of John McFarland, and the first resolution in the report of the Committee was adopted.

The second, third, fourth, and fifth resolutions were adopted, and then the seventh, as amended, on motion of B. M. Smith.

The whole report as adopted is as follows:

Resolved, 1. The Assembly desire to record with gratitude the favour extended to this enterprise by the great Head of the Church. They would reiterate their sense of the high value of the Board in counteracting the pernicious effects of a useless, vicious, and infidel literature, by disseminating far and wide the seeds of a true theology and vital piety. In these respects the Board of Publication is a valuable arm of the Church, and has proved itself to be an efficient and honoured instrumentality in the hands of God's servants.

Resolved, 2. The great object of the Board's organization and efforts, is the widest possible circulation of the pure, undisguised, complete truths of God's blessed word. It would use the press as a mighty agency in sending abroad on moral wastes the pure and refreshing streams of light, knowledge, and salvation. It aims to furnish the Church and the world a literature through whose pages shall gleam the great and precious doctrines of our confession and catechisms—doctrines which have cheered the Church in the past, and which constitute the hope of the world in the future. Its publications, whilst cultivating charity, liberality, and the largest measure of love to all who bear the Master's image, still display a cordial, affectionate, tenacious adherence to the distinctive principles which have ever marked us as a Church.

Resolved, 3. It gives the Assembly great pleasure to mark and record the increased evidence which God is rolling on the world, of his favour toward the colportage effort. These humble and self-denying men are doing God's work; they deserve and should receive the aid and the sympathy of God's people. With the books of the Board in their hands, and with the love of Christ and of souls warming their hearts, they often, as pioneers, go before the missionary and the minister preparing the way of the Lord. Thus greatly do they aid in diffusing, amid regions of moral darkness, Christian light and knowledge. The Assembly would therefore earnestly urge on the churches under their care, the importance of this arm of the enterprise, exhorting them to increased liberality in their contributions, that the operations of colportage may be enlarged, and that the publications of the Board may through their instrumentality be more widely diffused.

Resolved, 4. The General Assembly with great pleasure notice, among other publications of the Board, "The Letters of John Calvin." They doubt not that this rich and varied correspondence will throw new light and increased brilliancy upon the labours and character of that distinguished servant of God and his illustrious compeers; that it will be a fruitful source of delight and information to all who are interested in the history of the great Reformation.

Resolved, 5. The Assembly rejoices in the opportunity of expressing its approbation of the efforts made by the Board to meet the wants of the youth of our land, as regards Sabbath-school Libraries. These have too often and long been carelessly, sometimes ignorantly chosen. The imprint of the Board is a guaranty of their merit and character. The publications of this kind are judicious, attractive, and sound. The Assembly recommend that in the purchase of libraries, either for gifts to feeble churches or for use at home, these books of the Board should have the preference.

Resolved, 6. The Assembly would especially commend The Home and Foreign Record to a more general patronage throughout the Church; trusting that in its diligent perusal, members of the communion might catch more of the spirit of missions and of Christian benevolence so richly pervading its columns. They also recommend The Sabbath-school Visitor as a most excellent publication to be circulated through our Sabbath-schools, and among the children of our charge.

Resolved, 7. That in view of the reasonable representations of the Board of Publication, in their annual report, the Assembly consider that the performance of the order of the last Assembly, for expunging hymn 336, and inserting some other, had best be postponed till the way may appear clear for a careful revision of the whole book of Psalms and Hymns.

The Committee recommend the approval of the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, and that a copy thereof, with these resolutions, be handed to the Executive Committee for publication. The Committee would also nominate the Rev. S. B. Wilson as the preacher in behalf of the Board before the General Assembly in 1860, and the Rev. H. J. Van Dyke as alternate.

C. F. Worrell offered the following additional resolutions, which, on motion, were referred to the Board of Publication:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Publication be authorized to prepare and have published a small collection of Music, suited in its various particulars to the capacities, and calculated to call forth the interest and musical talents of young children; adapting itself, in some goodly measure, to the hymn books published by the Board for school purposes; and also social juvenile classes in musical training.

Resolved, 2. That the Board be directed to add to the General Assembly's Psalmody, as an Appendix, a considerable number of anthems and set pieces adapted to the various occasions of church dedications, concerts, and the more advanced culture in musical training.

On motion of J. H. Thornwell, the business of the Committee on the revision of the Book of Discipline, was recommitted to the same Committee, with instructions to report to the next General Assembly.

On motion of E. D. MacMaster, Judicial Case No. 1 was resumed. Members of the inferior judicatory were heard throughout, and withdrew; and then the roll was called; after which the final vote was taken, deciding, on a motion of E. D. MacMaster, not to sustain the appeal, and to affirm the decision of the Synod.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this evening at quarter before eight o'clock.

Closed with prayer by J. S. Hays.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, $\frac{1}{4}$ before 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

R. S. Kennedy gave notice that he would protest against the decision of the Assembly in Judicial case No. 1.

On motion of A. T. McGill, a committee of three was appointed to bring in a minute expressing the sense of the Assembly in deciding this case; and A. S. MacMaster, Alexander Donaldson, and R. S. Kennedy were announced as this committee.

On motion of E. D. MacMaster, Judicial Case No. 2 was then taken up—the appeal of Alexander Gordon against the Synod of Buffalo.

The usual notice and injunction was read by the Moderator, and then the case proceeded according to the regulations of the Book, and the ruling of the Moderator in Case No. 1.

A. G. Hall was heard on behalf of the appellant.

A. T. Rankin and E. B. Miller were heard on behalf of the Synod.

Opportunity was given to any member of the inferior court to give reasons; and then they withdrew, as required. The roll was called; after which the final vote was taken, and the Assembly decided, on motion of E. D. MacMaster, that the appeal be not sustained, and that the decision of the Synod be affirmed.

On motion, B. M. Smith, A. S. Gardiner and H. F. Hall, were appointed a committee to bring in a minute, expressing the sense of the Assembly in this decision.

A. S. MacMaster, from the special committee, reported the following minute in the decision of Judicial Case No. 1, which, being amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The decision of the General Assembly in the case of the appeal of Alexander Fraser against a decision of the Synod of Buffalo, refusing to sustain his appeal, and affirming the decision of the lower courts, suspending him from the communion of the Church, on the charge of a wilful absenting of himself from the ordinances of God's house for the space of a year and a half, is, that the appeal be not sustained; but the decision of the Synod affirmed:

First. Because the conduct charged, if the appellant was justly chargeable with such conduct, was a high offence.

Second. Because it was openly acknowledged in court by the appellant, that he was chargeable with the offence charged; and this is not denied by any party.

Third. Because, though there were serious informalities in the proceedings of the lower courts, of which irregularities this Assembly expresses its disapproval; yet the Synod expressly condemns such informalities.

On motion of E. D. MacMaster, Judicial Case No. 5 was taken up—the appeal of David Robinson from a decision of the Synod of Wheeling.

A motion was made to dismiss the case, because the notice required by the Book was not given by the appellant.

Pending a discussion on this motion, the Assembly, on motion, adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at half-past eight o'clock.

Closed with prayer by James McDowell.

THURSDAY MORNING, June 2.

The Assembly met, and engaged as usual, in singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer for half an hour.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Mr. Lyle, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave has been granted to the following members for the remaining sessions of this Assembly, viz.,

W. H. Talcott, S. Mattoon, D. T. Stuart, E. McLean, Rev. W. W. McNair, J. H. Anderson, N. H. Gillett, A. Williams, G. C. Heckman, Jonathan Bliss, John Clark, S. R. Alexander, S. J. Milliken, John Lilley, A. G. Moore, J. B. Mitchell, N. C. Thompson, T. M. Newell, Wm. Campbell, S. R. Wilson, H. C. Field, James Purse, J. A. Lefevre, B. A. Glass, A. R. Banks, John Barret, S. C. Jackson, B. Lewis, W. P. Moore, J. S. Hays, S. H. Armstrong, W. B. A. Ramsey, W. B. Moore.

The report was approved.

R. S. Kennedy read a protest against the decision of the Assembly in Judicial Case No. 1.

On motion of D. Gaston, it was recommitted, in order to have certain offensive language expunged.

B. M. Smith, from the special committee, reported the following minute for the decision of the Assembly in Judicial Case No. 2, which was adopted.

The Assembly deem any detailed expression of opinion in this case, superseded by the minute already adopted in relation to the case of Mr. Fraser, to which this corresponds in its leading features. It is, however, not improper to add, that the Assembly have not discovered in the proceedings of the lower court the informalities alleged by the appellant.

It is further the opinion of the Assembly, that had the improper conduct of the appellant been made a subject of discipline at an earlier period, a more happy issue might have been reached. The Assembly formally and affectionately urges on the appellant a submission to the sentence of his brethren, and a speedy return to the path of duty and privilege.

E. D. MacMaster offered the following additional minute, in relation to Judicial Cases 1 and 2, which was adopted, viz.,

Whereas, It has appeared on the trial of Judicial Cases Nos. 1 and 2, that full testimony was given, as well in this court as on the trial in the courts below, to the exemplary Christian character of the appellants in these cases respectively: And whereas, the offence which has subjected said appellants to the discipline of the Church, has arisen from a conscience misled by erroneous views of their duty; therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Session of the church of Caledonia, to deal with these brethren with the utmost tenderness and Christian affection, that they may be led to see their error, and to return to their duty; and that they may be restored to the fellowship of the church, from which they have been too long separated.

A. T. McGill, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, made the following report, viz.

Whereas, The Third Centennial Anniversary of the Presbyterian Reformation in Great Britain, approaches in the year next ensuing, and arrangements have been made by the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and the Presbyterian Synod of England, to have a meeting or meetings next May, attended by all Evangelical Presbyterian bodies in the world, through such representation as they may deem it proper to send; and whereas, brethren of our own body, who are honoured and trusted among us, may find it convenient to visit this interesting convocation, at their own charges. Therefore, Resolved, 1. That the Rev. Drs. Gardiner Spring, James W. Alexander, Nicholas Murray, Robert Davidson, C. Van Rensselaer, John Leyburn and B. M. Palmer, ministers; and James Lenox, Robert Carter, Thomas R. R. Cobb, C. Macalester, and Stephen Alexander, ruling elders, be appointed to represent our branch of the Church at that meeting, and any other of similar aims and principles in Europe, which may meet within eighteen months from the present date.

Resolved, 2. That the Rev. R. C. Mathews be appointed Delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

On motion of B. M. Palmer, the report was amended, by adding the name of Alexander T. McGill to the list of Delegates nominated for the ter-centenary celebration in Europe, and then adopted.

On motion of B. M. Smith, the unfinished business on Judicial Case No. 5, was taken up, and the motion to dismiss it, as recommended by the Judicial Committee, was adopted.

The protest of R. S. Kennedy was presented as amended, and on motion of A. T. McGill, was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned protests against the decision of the General Assembly, whereby they refused to sustain the appeal of Alexander Fraser against the Synod of Buffalo, for the following reasons:

First. Because the appellant was convicted by the Session of Caledonia church of neglecting ordinances, and suspended from the church without the Session pursuing any of those forms of trial which our Book declares to be necessary in Chap. IV. of our Book of Discipline. It appearing by the records that at a meeting of Session called for mutual conference, the Session proceeded, after hearing Mr. Fraser give his reasons for not attending church, to condemn him, and to suspend him from the communion, without citation, without any written charges, or a copy given to the accused, and without any witnesses being sworn in the case.

Second. Because the General Assembly, as it appears to me, has thus sustained this Session in their disregard of those forms of proceeding in our church courts which our Constitution so clearly prescribes; thus sanctioning a violation of our Constitution, and opening a wide door for any of our church courts hereafter to follow the example of the church of Caledonia, or for any latitude of judicial proceedings which their prejudices or their ignorance may induce them to take; to the great injury of individual members, to the entire confusion of judicial proceedings, and in the end, we fear, to the abandonment of all discipline, and the letting out of the waters of discord.

Third. Because no consent or act of the appellant when before the Session, gave, or could give to the Session, any authority for their proceedings. If a Session cannot, with the consent, or at the request of a church member, for the crime of unbelief, separate him from the communion without a regular trial, then no consent in this case could justify the Session to adopt any summary proceedings not laid down in our Book. But the appellant gave no such consent; he merely consented that they might try him, if they thought proper—but never waived his right to a legal trial, to a written copy of the charges, the names of witnesses, and the right to confront two of those witnesses under oath, and cross-examine them. And these rights he could no more divest himself of, by any act of his, than he could divest himself of his church membership.

Fourth. Because the record of the Session, on which the Assembly decided, did not give, nor purport to give, any evidence as taken before them; but merely a statement made by the Clerk of Session, that the accused, in a speech made before them justifying his course, had confessed to being absent from church. Now, we protest against the mere one-sided impressions of a clerk, not under oath, being received as testimony in any court, when our Book expressly declares, in Chap. VI., Sect. 17, "The testimony given by witnesses must be faithfully recorded, and read to them for their approbation or subscription."

Fifth. Because the General Assembly has declared that the appellant had committed an offence, and that his suspension from the church is an end righteous and just for such an offence; and by refusing to reverse, or set aside, the clearly unconstitutional proceedings of Session, which produced that end, the Assembly has sanctioned a wrong proceeding in the Session, because the end was just.

Sixth. I protest against the action of the Assembly in censuring the proceedings of Session by a resolution, after they had judicially approved them by refusing to sustain the appeal.

ROBERT S. KENNEDY.

E. D. MacMaster submitted the following, as an answer to the protest, which was adopted, viz.

The Assembly does not admit the alleged facts as to irregularities in the trial of the court below.

The following memorial was read to the Assembly, viz.

Whereas, We, the Elders in attendance on the present sessions of the General Assembly in Indianapolis, do believe that much benefit and instruction would be the result of a special sermon to the Elders; therefore,

Resolved, That we invite the General Assembly to appoint some one to preach a sermon on the duties and efficiency of the Eldership, at the next meeting of the Assembly to be held in the City of Rochester.

CHARLES FULLER, Presbytery of Luzerne.

S. E. ARMS, Presbytery of Elizabethtown.

M. B. BROWN, Presbytery of Ohio.

On motion of A. T. McGill, this request was granted, and Joseph McElroy was appointed principal and John C. Backus alternate, to preach the sermon.

The reports on the records of the Synods of Buffalo and Baltimore, respectively, were taken up, and adopted, approving of the same without exception.

The report on the records of the Synod of Wheeling was taken up, amended, and adopted, approving of the same, with the following exception viz.

On page 409, the exceptions to the records of New Lisbon Presbytery are not recorded, in violation of Book of Discipline, chap. 7, sec. 1, sub sec. 3.

On motion of S. J. P. Anderson, the report on overture No. 22, in relation to the introduction of new specifications, and new testimony, after judicial process has commenced, was taken up, and on motion of E. P. Humphrey, it was indefinitely postponed.

Overture No. 27. Motions of Jonathan Edwards and J. C. Rankin, respecting notice to be given to persons elected, etc.

The report of the Committee that, under present circumstances, no action is required in the premises, was adopted.

The unfinished business on the report of the Special Committee to revise the Statistical Tables, was taken up, and this report was referred to the next General Assembly.

The unfinished business on the report from a Committee of the Board of Trustees, respecting "Disabled ministers, etc.," was taken up, and on motion of A. G. Hall, amended, and then adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The unfinished business on the report of E. B. Miller, in relation to charters for incorporation of churches, was taken up, and on motion of A. S. MacMaster, was referred to the next General Assembly, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

Overture No. 11 was taken up, and on motion of R. H. Chapman, was also ordered to be printed in the Appendix, and recommended to the attention of the Synods.

On motion of A. T. Rankin, the reference of the last General Assembly, respecting a Commentary on the Scriptures, was taken up, and on motion of R. H. Chapman, was referred to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 19, from the Presbytery of Mississippi, respecting a Commentary, was taken up, and on motion of John McFarland, was laid on the table.

Overture No. 28, from R. R. Reed, respecting the Colonization Society, and the report of the Committee thereon, was taken up, and on motion of E. P. Humphrey, the whole subject was laid on the table.

It was, on various motions,

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the citizens of Indianapolis, for their kindness and generous hospitality to the members of the Assembly during its present sessions.

Also, to the Committee of Arrangements, for their diligent and successful efforts to provide for the accommodation of the members of the Assembly.

Also, to the ministers of our own and other denominations, who tendered the use of their pulpits to the members.

Also, to the various railroad companies that granted a reduction of fare to the members and others who came to attend on the business of the Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was directed to publish these thanks in the newspapers of Indianapolis.

It was then, on motion of J. R. Mann,

Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the city of Rochester, New York, in the First Presbyterian Church, on the third Thursday of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

ALEXANDER T. MCGILL,

PERMANENT CLERK.

JOHN LEYBURN,

STATED CLERK.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, AT THEIR SESSIONS AT INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, MAY, 1859, AND ADDRESSED TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE.

THE meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States may be regarded as the general review of the armies of our spiritual Israel. It must be admitted that there is something exceedingly interesting in such an assemblage of the representatives of so many Presbyteries and Churches, coming together from all parts of this vast country—from the North and the South, the East and the West—all speaking the same language, forgetting those sectional topics which excite and agitate other bodies, and agreeing to attend to the one great business assigned to them by the Lord Jesus Christ—the proclamation of the glorious Gospel, and the adoption of means and measures for filling the world with the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

The Assembly desire to render devout thanks to God, for the many tokens of his favour granted to them, during the past year. All the Reports sent up to us from the Presbyteries, together with all the information incidentally imparted, proclaim this one interesting fact, that the Church of Jesus Christ, under our immediate supervision, is advancing in the work committed to her by her Great Head. Since the last Narrative was sent down to the churches, our borders have been enlarged by the formation of eleven new Presbyteries—a larger number than has ever been formed during any previous year, and by the organization of new churches in almost all the Presbyteries. At the time when the Assembly held its sessions last year, a number of churches were enjoying revivals of religion. The precious fruits of those revivals have been gathered in, and many other churches have since been visited by the outpouring of God's gracious Spirit. One hundred and twenty-nine Presbyteries have sent up Narratives to this Assembly. Of these sixty-three report revivals during the past year, namely, Crawfordsville, North River, Luzerne, Erie, Saltsburg, Lexington, Ogdensburg, Huntingdon, Ebenezer, Hopewell, Washington, Sidney, Maury, Bethel, Lafayette, Lake, Tusculum, St. Louis, Medina, Raritan, Buffalo City, Baltimore, Genesee River, Passaic, Mississippi, Beaver, New Albany, Steubenville, West Lexington, Flint River, Tuscaloosa, Sangamon, Tombeckbe, Albany, South Carolina, Memphis, Charleston, Chickasaw, Harmony, Blairsville, Maumee, Elizabethtown, Transylvania, Nassau, Wooster, Dubuque, Concord, Donegal, Orange, Long Island, Allegheny, Kaskaskia, Fayetteville, Missouri, Philadelphia, New Brunswick, Ningpo, West Hanover, Winnebago, Marion, East Hanover, the Second Presbytery of Philadelphia, and Cherokee. Among the Presbyteries that have enjoyed revivals, we give a place to Ningpo, in China, inasmuch as when the Narrative from that Presbytery was written, seven members had been received into the church, on profession of faith, and some ten or twelve were to be baptized on the first Sabbath in February. It is further stated, that from an institution under the management of the Presbytery, one young man has placed himself under the care of the Presbytery, as a candidate for the ministry, and it is hoped that two or three others will follow his example. Such is indeed cheering intelligence to come from that distant land, so long shut up in Pagan darkness. We think we may justly report among the revivals which have been enjoyed in our Church, that wonderful, and in its bearings, most important work of grace, on board of the "North Carolina," as a minister of our Church was an active labourer in that work, and as a number of the converts joined the Presbyterian Church.

A large proportion of the other Presbyteries, whilst they have not been visited by those marked displays of the power of the Spirit, which are usually denominated revivals, have, nevertheless, been refreshed and strengthened. Indeed there are very few, if any, Presbyteries that have not reported conversions, and other evidences of the smiles of the Great Head of the Church. The Narratives which we have received, present a number of interesting facts, which we feel bound to record.

1. One of these is, that all the churches which were revived last year, still retain the spirit of those refreshing seasons. None of them appear to have been visited with that reaction, and formality, and deadness, which too frequently follow seasons of revival. The vital influence of those times of refreshings seems to have followed them through the year; and whilst additions to those churches are not as large as they were last year, still the presence of the Divine Spirit has been manifest in the spiritual life of Christians, and in the harmony, and love, and joy, and activity, in the service of the Lord, which have pervaded the churches. Perhaps there never has been a year in the history of our Zion, when the churches were so generally at peace, with so few roots of bitterness springing up to trouble them.

2. Another fact in the history of our Church for the last year, which we feel bound specially to notice, is the general prevalence of a spirit of prayer. This has been manifested in the multiplication of meetings for prayer, and in the unusually large numbers that have attended such meetings, and the interest with which they have attended them. As we were bound to expect it would be, God has heard the prayers of his people, and answered them in the conversion of sinners, and also in the peace, harmony and spiritual prosperity of the churches, and their efficiency in the various schemes for the promotion of the cause of Christ.

3. Another interesting fact brought to view by the narratives, is the great attention which has been paid by the Presbyteries and churches to the religious instruction of youth. With comparatively a few exceptions the Presbyteries report flourishing Sabbath-schools and Bible Classes; and many report catechetical instruction especially in the Catechisms of our Church. This we are bound to regard as a most important movement in the right direction. It is but the utterance of an oft-repeated truism, to say that the young are the hope of the Church, and, that if, before their minds are pre-occupied by error, they shall be imbued with Divine truth, they will not only be secured against the wiles of deceivers, but will also be much more likely than others not having enjoyed such instruction, to be truly converted—brought into the fold of the Great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls. In confirmation of these views we remark that a number of the Presbyteries in which revivals have been enjoyed during the past year, state that the fruits of those revivals have been gathered especially from Sabbath-schools and Bible classes.

In this connexion we mention that several of the Presbyteries report revivals in Literary institutions, more or less directly under their control, and the important fact, that numbers of young men, converted, have dedicated themselves to the work of the ministry.

4. We have thought proper to bring specially to notice the fact, that in addition to prayer, the means employed in producing the revivals reported has been the plain and practical preaching of the doctrines of the word of God. Several Presbyteries mention specially expository preaching as a means which has been employed with evident good results. The Assembly would take this opportunity of recommending to the ministers under its direction, attention to this mode of preaching so well adapted to do honour to the word of God, and which the fathers of the preceding age employed with such eminent good effect.

Again, the reports which have come up to us show an increasing attention to the spiritual interests of the coloured people. From the narratives of the Southern Presbyteries it appears that the Gospel is specially preached to them by nearly all their pastors. We have before us abundant evidence that the Gospel as thus preached has not been unattended by the blessing of God—has been in many instances received by them in simplicity of faith, and has been made to throw the power of God unto salvation. It is our privilege to state the interesting and cheering fact, that eleven Presbyteries report revivals among the coloured people, some of them revivals in several churches. One church has for eighteen months enjoyed a continuous revival; and, as the fruits of that revival, as an expression of their gratitude to the Lord for the great things which he has done for them, they have contributed a considerable sum to send the gospel to their benighted brethren in Africa.

5. The evidence before us, afforded by the narratives, clearly indicates that the members of the churches are growing in the grace of giving to the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ; not indeed so rapidly as could be desired, yet evidently there is advancement in this important matter. A considerable number of the Presbyteries report that in obedience to the direction of the General Assembly they have inaugurated plans of systematic contribution. We trust that the time is not far distant when this matter shall be placed on its only true and proper basis—when every member of the church, whether rich or poor, young or old, male or female, shall have the opportunity of contributing to every good cause, and especially to all those schemes of benevolent operations in which our Church is engaged, and when all shall feel it to be their duty and their privilege to contribute in proportion as the Lord has blessed them. Whenever that point shall be reached, then will our Church have all the means needed to accomplish the great work assigned her by her ascended King. Not only will her coffers be filled with sufficient gold and silver, but what is far more important, she will have the ministers of the right kind, and in sufficient numbers. Such a spirit and such action would not only be the harbingers of one great glorious revival; they would be such a revival, and would exercise on Christians in every condition, those benign influences which always attend genuine revivals. Then would our fathers and mothers joyfully and in faith give their sons and daughters to the service of the Lord, in whatever departments and in whatever lands he might see fit to employ them. Then would our young men, in proportion as the Lord has need of them, turn away from the calls of ambition, and the calls of worldly emolument, and devote themselves to the high and holy work of preaching the Gospel. Whose heart does not throb with emotions of delight at such a prospect as this. What minister of Christ—what church member is there in our Zion, that will not daily pray for this most desirable consummation, and do all that he can to produce it.

6. There is one other important fact, for the existence of which we would most render thanks to the Lord, and to which we would especially direct the attention of the Church. The fact to which we refer, we cannot better designate than by denominating it the revival which has taken place among the elders of our Church. The eldership is not only a great characteristic feature of the Presbyterian Church, but also constitutes a part of her equipment for accomplishment of good, which, if properly employed, must render the Presbyterian efficient beyond all other church organizations. Now whilst it is true we have ever had in our church holding this office a number of holy, intelligent and diligent men, who have faithfully and successfully discharged the duties required of them, yet it must be admitted that there have always been many others who have failed in any proper manner to come up to the spirit, or perform the duties of their high and holy calling. The Assembly rejoices in the evidence before it that the elders very extensively are beginning to wake up to the immense responsibilities that rest upon them as office-bearers in the House of God, are beginning to seek for higher qualifications for the discharge of the duties of their office, and are beginning to enter upon the practice of those duties with increasing zeal, faithfulness and efficiency. The evidences of this most important change are to be found in those conventions of elders which have been held in several Synods, and in the frequent statements made by the Presbyteries in their narratives, that elders with prompt zeal and activity have aided the ministers in the revivals with which the churches have been blessed during the year. The Assembly cannot but regard with great interest the elders' daily prayer-meeting that has been held during its sessions at this place, and express the hope and prayer that the spirit of these meetings may be carried down to all the Presbyteries, and all the churches, and that soon there may be established an elders' prayer-meeting in every church.

Whilst the reports made by the Presbyteries present these encouraging facts, we are bound to state that they contain others of a different character—others which call for admonition on the part of the Assembly, and for humiliation on the part of all those members of the Church to whom they relate. We mention one of this character, which does indeed carry all others in its train: many of the Presbyteries deplore a prevalent worldliness in some of their churches, and its practical consequence, worldly conformity. The avowed subjects of a Prince who has declared that his kingdom is not of this world, are found bowing to the shrine of the god of this world, speaking the language, conforming to the customs, and following the amusements of this world. The Assembly would solemnly admonish all members of the Church, who are acting in this way, and remind them of the great evil which they are of necessity doing—the reproach which they are bringing on the cause of Christ, and the injury which they are inflicting on the souls of men. That professor of religion who lives in pursuit of the vanities of a sinful world, conforms to its maxims, adopts its policy, and indulges in its amusements, is recreant to all the solemn vows which he made when he entered the Church; and without repentance, must be condemned with the world, and be assigned to a far more fearful destiny of woe than that which awaits those who have never professed to belong to the kingdom of Christ.

Such is a brief history of the spiritual progress of our Church, during the past year. Like that of individual Christian life, it is marked by lights and shades. We have, as a Church, sinned over which to mourn, and cause for humiliation in the presence of our Divine Master, and earnest supplication for pardon wherein we have failed to accomplish all the good which, with the means that he has placed in our hands, we might have accomplished. Still we have cause to thank God, take courage, and press forward in our work with renewed zeal and confidence. Much good—immortal good has been done. The bounds of our field of operation have been enlarged, and many souls have been brought out of the darkness of sin, into the light, and liberty, and blessedness of the sons of God—souls that will forever shine as stars in the Redeemer's crown of glory.

Standing on the eminence which we now occupy—the close of one ecclesiastical year and the commencement of another—let us for a few moments survey the prospect that spreads out before us—the field in which we are called to labour—the work which we are called to do. Most undoubtedly ours is no contracted field. Our vast Republic, composed of empire States, in its whole extent, invites and commands our occupancy. God has, as we believe, entrusted us with the means and agencies which alone can save it from the dangers to which it is exposed, and which, unless counteracted by some such conservative influence as that which our Church is adapted to exercise, may at any time work the ruin of all its most precious institutions. But wide as this field is, and important as these interests confessedly are, they sink into comparative insignificance in view of the whole field which our Church is called to occupy, and the momentous interests for which it is her especial duty to care and labour. Her appropriate work is to give, as speedily as possible, to the perishing millions in our own land, and to the unnumbered millions in heathen lands, the unsearchable riches of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, for the lack of which they are perishing. For the accomplishment of this great work, we believe that our Church is duly equipped. With her Boards of Education, Domestic and Foreign Missions, Publication, and Church Extension—with her institutions of learning and Theological Seminaries—with her pious and educated ministry, with her thousands of holy and praying men and women—and with the silver and gold in the possession of her members, which they are bound to hold in trust for her, to be used as her Lord has need, there is no department in the great work of the world's conversion on which she may not immediately enter. What we need is individual action, together with combined action. We need that all our ministers, elders, churches, and church members should be fully awake to the responsibility that rests upon them, and that they should perform with diligence and activity the work which properly belongs to them in their several spheres and stations. Then, again, we need that the thousands of our ministers, elders, and church members act in combination—that they carry out practically and fully the sublime theory that our church is a unit—one great army of the Lord—organized and equipped to contend with one common enemy, and accomplish one great work—publish salvation to the world—bear the standard of the cross to the utmost bounds of earth.

What we need beyond all things else is believing prayer. We live at an era of prayer—a time of special prayer, and of special and direct answers to prayer. From indications given during the past two years, may we not hope that we are approaching a new and wonderful epoch in the history of the Church—a time when the power of believing prayer shall be manifested, as it has not been since the days of the Apostles. Presbyterians, into whose system of faith Divine influences enter so essentially, should, beyond all others, be distinguished for prayer. They believe that their success in the conversion of sinners, depends, not on might, or power—human might, and human power—but on the Spirit of God, and that God has made it their privilege, whilst with diligence they employ the means of his own appointment, to ask for and receive the presence and the power of his Holy Spirit. Let them only act consistently with their avowed creed—let all our ministers, elders, church, and members of the church, individually, and in their various organizations, wisely and faithfully perform the work assigned them by the Saviour, and let believing prayer continually ascend from all our studies, domestic altars, closets, and churches, and then we may confidently believe there will come up to the next General Assembly such reports from all the Presbyteries, as have been presented to no previous Assembly. Then, instead of a general, a universal revival will pervade the entire Church, far as she has extended her bounds in home and foreign lands. May the Lord breathe such a spirit into the hearts of all our ministers, and through all the churches!

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1858-59.

The Board of Domestic Missions, in presenting their Fifty-seventh Annual Report to the General Assembly, would take occasion, first of all, to express their gratitude to God for his continued blessing upon the cause entrusted to their official management. The immense pecuniary losses sustained by various classes, in consequence of the extraordinary monetary crisis in the fall of 1857—the continued stagnation of business generally—and the failure of the crops in various sections of the country, led us to apprehend a very large diminution in our receipts. During the first two months of the fiscal year, the receipts had actually fallen off between six and seven thousand dollars, and by the 1st of January they were less, by nearly fourteen thousand five hundred dollars, than at the same date the year preceding; but during the last two months of the fiscal year, the receipts were much larger than during the corresponding months of the year previous; so that we were enabled to close the year much better than could have been anticipated. Although our receipts during the year were smaller, as compared with the receipts of the year preceding, they were larger than the average receipts of the five preceding years, by eleven thousand one hundred and ten dollars and thirty-five cents. The number of our missionaries was slightly diminished during the year; but, so far as recollected, every application for an appointment, duly made, was granted by the Board. The average salary appropriated to the missionaries, instead of having been diminished, was slightly increased; and every one who reported up to the close of the year was promptly paid. The balance on hand in all the treasuries at the close of the year was twenty-eight thousand four hundred and twenty-two dollars and nineteen cents—being eight thousand and thirty-seven dollars and ninety four cents more than the balance at the close of the year preceding. Without further anticipating our Report we proceed to exhibit the details.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

OF MISSIONS.—Statistical Details.—The number of missionaries in commission March 1, 1858, was 392, to which have been added, to March 1, 1859, 208, making the whole number 600, and less by 10 than the year previous.

The number of churches and missionary stations, wholly or in part supplied, (as far as reported,) by our missionaries, is 815.

The number of newly organized churches is 50.

The number of admissions on examination is 2,709, and on certificate 1,801, making a total of admissions of 4,510.

The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 24,015.

The number of Sabbath-schools is 355; of teachers, 2,900; and of scholars, 17,453.

The number of baptisms is 2,792.

Of the 600 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 175 have sent in no special report for the Assembly—over one-fourth of the whole number; consequently we must increase all the returns over one-fourth to make them correct.

APPROPRIATIONS.—The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, have been at the office in Philadelphia, $58,360.17, and at the office in Louisville, $36,116.66, making a total of $94,476.83.

The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1857, to March 1, 1858, were, at the office in Philadelphia, $61,085, and at the office in Louisville, $35,025; making a total of $96,110. From this statement it appears, that the appropriations made at the office in Philadelphia, were less than those made the year before $2,724.83, and at the office in Louisville they were more by $1,091.66; thus making the total appropriations this year less than the year preceding by $1,633.17.

For the purpose of further comparison we may state, that the average appropriations made during the preceding six years, from 1852 to 1858, were at the office in Philadelphia, $49,845.84, and at the office in Louisville, $31,193.58; making a total average of $81,039.42. From this statement it appears that the appropriations made from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, at the office in Philadelphia, exceeded the average of those made during the six previous years, $8,514.33, and at the office in Louisville, $4,923.08; thus making a total excess of appropriations this year above the average appropriations of the six preceding years, $13,437.41.

As the missionary appointments are made, with very few exceptions, for twelve months, and are scattered over the whole year, of course a large number of the appropriations made during the year have not yet fully matured, but will be falling due as the present year advances.

RECEIPTS.—The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, is $99,673.03, to which add balances on hand in the different treasuries, March 1, 1858, $20,384.25; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $120,057.28.

The amount paid out at the office in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterial treasuries, was $74,493.34, and at the office in Louisville, $17,141.75; making the total amount of payments during the year, $91,635.09; leaving an available balance in all the treasuries, on the 1st of March, 1859, of $28,422.19. The amount due the missionaries at the same date was $12,699.57, leaving an unexpended balance of $15,722.62.

The aggregate receipts from March 1, 1858, to March 1, 1859, have been less as compared with the receipts from March 1, 1857, to March 1, 1858, $5,604.49. The decrease has been in individual or special donations and legacies $2,184.53, and in the contributions of the churches, $3,419.96. The receipts at the office in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterial treasuries, were less by $5,635.16, and were greater at the office in Louisville by $30.67.

The balance in all the treasuries on the 1st of March, 1859, is more by $8,037.94, than the amount which was reported in hand on the 1st of March, 1858. This gratifying result could not have been anticipated until very near the close of our fiscal year; the receipts during the first two months of the year, viz., March and April, as compared with the corresponding period of the year preceding, having fallen short between $6,000 and $7,000. By the 1st of December, the treasury was nearly exhausted; and even as late as the 1st of January, the balance on hand was considerably less than at the same date the year previous. The receipts of the Board during the last two months of the fiscal year, viz., January and February, were upwards of $35,000, not including the Presbyterial treasuries; being greater, by nearly eight thousand dollars, than during the corresponding months of the year preceding. The receipts during the month of February alone exceeded the sum of $20,000. This sudden and large increase, notwithstanding the depressed financial condition of the country, was indeed extraordinary, and shows how deeply and generally the churches sympathized with the Board in their pecuniary embarrassment. The balance on hand, although larger than that of last year, is not more than is desirable to enable the Board to carry on their operations during the coming year, as we shall take occasion to show in another part of this Report, under the head of Need of Funds.

OUR MISSIONS.

During the year, the Board have established new missions in various sections of our country, as well in larger cities and towns as in smaller villages and rural districts. They have also, to the extent of their ability, reinforced our missionaries in the newer States and Territories. One missionary has been added to the number in California, and another has been commissioned, who will in a short time enter that field. One has been added to the number in Oregon, one in the Territory of Washington, one in the State of Rhode Island, one in Ohio, ten in Illinois, two in North Carolina, two in Louisiana, two in Mississippi, one in Arkansas, three in Iowa, two in Minnesota, and one in the Territory of Nebraska.

The Board will endeavour, as heretofore, to enlarge the sphere of their missionary operations as rapidly as the means placed at their disposal will allow.

They deeply regret, in view of the urgent demands that are made upon them, that their resources are, comparatively, so limited. We have neither the men nor the means to supply adequately the wants of a population so immense, and so rapidly multiplying and expanding. In the circumstances in which we are placed, our policy is to maintain the ground already secured, and to occupy the more promising points yet destitute, as fast as our resources will admit.

In this connection we state as heretofore, that we have continued to employ a number of missionaries among our foreign population. One has laboured among the French, one among the Welsh, and twenty-four among the Germans. Many of our missionaries labouring in the Southern States, devote a portion of their time to the coloured population.

We add that, during the year, twenty-seven of our missionaries have been commissioned and employed as itinerants. A large portion of our missionaries perform more or less of such service, but the above number are either wholly or almost entirely employed as itinerants. By a judicious arrangement of weak and feeble churches, forming them into itinerant circuits, a great saving might be effected by the Presbyteries both of men and means. But the employment of itinerants in districts where there are no churches as yet organized, and from which the itinerants can derive little or no support, involves a very heavy expense; so that the number of such cannot be much increased with our present limited resources, without reducing the appropriations now made to the pastors and stated supplies of our missionary churches.

NEED OF FUNDS.

The available balance on hand on the 1st of March, 1859, is comparatively large, and unexplained may readily mislead the patrons of the Board. We have reason to fear that, notwithstanding our repeated explanations of this matter, some of our friends still entertain a wrong impression, and have withheld or diminished their contributions, on the supposition that the Board could not be in need of pecuniary assistance, because the balance reported was so large. We will, therefore, repeat what we have stated in former Reports, that the amount on hand at the period of the year when our balance is reported, is always larger than at any other time. From the month of March the receipts begin to fall off, and during the latter part of the spring, the entire summer, and the early part of the fall, the receipts are comparatively small; so that unless our available balance at the commencement of the fiscal year is comparatively large, it would be impracticable to carry on the operations of the Board during the year. For example, at the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1, 1858, we reported an available balance of more than $20,000, and yet, about the beginning of the month of December, the treasury was nearly exhausted, and we were obliged to issue repeated and urgent appeals to the friends of the cause, for immediate donations to enable us to meet our current liabilities. Sometimes the falling off after the close of the fiscal year, is not only very sudden but very great. For example, while the receipts at the principal treasury in Philadelphia during the month of February last amounted to $15,257.88, during the month of March (the first month in the new fiscal year) the receipts were only $5,240.14; thus showing a falling off of $10,017.74 in the space of a single month; while our monthly payments average nearly the same during every period of the year.

When the number of missionaries was much smaller than at present; when the average salaries was much less; when the annual expenditures of the Board were not half so great as now, of course a much smaller balance at the commencement of the fiscal year was all-sufficient. But with the present enlarged operations and expenditures, experience has shown that a much larger balance at the beginning of the fiscal year is indispensable to enable the Board to meet their engagements promptly, and without embarrassment, during the entire year.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS.

The following will show the advance that has been made during the present administration of the Board, a period of six years, as compared with the corresponding number of years preceding.

1. The average number of missionaries from 1847-8 to 1852-3 inclusive, was 531; the average number from 1853-4 to 1858-9 inclusive, was 569—showing a greater average during the last six years by 38. The number of missionaries the past year was greater by 31, than the average number from 1853-4 to 1858-9; and they were larger by 69 than the average number from 1847-8 to 1842-3 inclusive.

2. The average amount of the annual receipts from 1847-8 to 1852-3 inclusive, was $69,171; from 1853-4 to 1858-9 inclusive, it was $90,414.40, being a larger annual average the last six years by $21,243.40 than the annual average of the six preceding years. The receipts during the past year were greater than the average receipts from 1853-4 to 1858-9, inclusive, by $9,258.63; and they were larger than the average of receipts from 1847-8 to 1852-3, inclusive, $30,502.03.

3. The average annual amount appropriated from 1847-8 to 1852-3 inclusive, was $57,953.33; from 1853-4 to 1858-9 inclusive, it was $87,300.38, showing a greater annual average of appropriations during the last six years, by $29,347.05, than the annual average of the six preceding years. The amount appropriated the past year was greater by $7,176.45 than the average appropriation from 1853-4 to 1858-9 inclusive, and larger than the average appropriation from 1847-8 to 1852-3 inclusive, by $36,523.50.

4. The average salary appropriated to the missionaries in 1852-3 was \$131.82; the average salary appropriated the past year was \$189.52—a larger sum by \$57.70. The average salary appropriated to the missionaries last year was greater, by \$13.50, than the average salary appropriated during six years from 1853-4 to 1858-9 inclusive. From the foregoing statement it appears that the average salary appropriated to the missionaries by the Board has been increased, during the past six years, 43 $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1859.

PART I.—MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Candidates.—The following table of the statistics of candidates shows the operations of the Board in the Ministerial department.

The number of new candidates received has been	141
Making in all, from the beginning (in 1819)	2771
The whole number on the roll during this year has been	391
In their Theological course,	170
“ Collegiate “	118
“ Academical “	92
“ Stage of study not reported	5
“ Teaching, or otherwise absent, &c.	6

The aggregate number of candidates is six more than the number on the roll last year.

The number of new candidates is thirty-eight more than the number received last year. The total number of new candidates is one hundred and forty one, which is the largest number received in any one year since the division of the Church.

Resignation of Dr. Wood.—Dr. Wood resigned the office of Associate Secretary, the resignation to take effect on June 19th, 1859, he having accepted the Presidency of Hanover College. The Board do not intend to fill this vacancy.

Hints on the Choice of a Profession.—At a time when so many young men are brought to the knowledge of Christ, and the world is so active with influences to claim their services, the Board have ventured to present some considerations to the youth of the Church, in regard to the principles which should guide the determination of their course in life.

1. A leading principle in the choice of a profession, is to follow the one best suited to a young man's gifts and endowments.
2. Another principle is, that that profession is to be chosen which God seems the most to approve.
3. Consider the claims of that profession which offers the widest field of usefulness.
4. Another principle worthy of consideration in the choice of a profession, is to notice the direction in which Providence points.
5. A preference may be wisely given, other things being equal, to a profession that admits and nurtures personal improvement, and does not give a prominence to sordid temptations.
6. A young man should keep in sight the rewards of eternity.

PART II.—CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS, ACADEMIES, AND COLLEGES.

The Board of Education have been enabled to do much good in sustaining feeble institutions of learning. The number of parochial schools is not large—probably about 100; but they are a great blessing to the children attending them; and their influence upon other schools is important; and they assist in keeping before the community the great principles of Presbyterian education. A revival occurred in one of these schools, in which eight of the older youth were hopefully converted.

The number of Presbyterial Academies is fifty-eight; and these higher institutions, scattered all over the land, are accomplishing important results for Christian education. Their number ought to be largely augmented, and every opportunity embraced for establishing them which Providence may offer. A number of conversions have taken place during the year in our academies. The greatest religious awakening occurred in the Academy at Waveland, Indiana, under the care of the Presbytery of Crawfordsville. In this revival twenty-three of the students united with the Church.

Colleges are great instrumentalities in advancing the kingdom of Christ. The Church should not establish them too fast, but fast enough; not ahead of Providence, nor too far behind Providence; but according to Providence. In some sections of our Church there are too many colleges—in others too few; in others, the number is just right. The report of the Board contains various suggestions about the collegiate policy of our Church, entitled "Plain Words on Colleges." The discussion is on the following points: 1, the number of colleges; 2, their location; 3, the right time for establishing them; 4, buildings; 5, endowment; 6, debt; 7, trustees and professors; 8, standard of scholarship; 9, discipline; 10, religious instruction; 11, the relation of each college to the character of the whole Church. Hints on these topics may be of some use, perhaps, to thoughtful educators. Revivals of religion occurred during the year in three of our colleges, viz., Davidson College, North Carolina; Westminster College, Missouri; and Centre College, Kentucky. The number of students converted is from thirty to fifty. To God be the praise for these and other glorious results.

State of the Treasury.—The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board during the ecclesiastical year.

	Candidates' Fund.	Schools and Colleges.	Miscellaneous Fund.	African Fund.
Receipts, - -	$52,077 92	$5,799 26	$180 00
Balances, 1858, - -	6,041 01	86 05	3 76	$1,380 69
Total Income, - -	58,118 93	5,885 31	183 76	1,380 69
Payments, - -	51,546 55	4,687 67	140 00	27 00
Balances, 1859,	6,572 38	1,197 64	43 76	1,353 69

1. The total receipts of the year, from all sources, are $58,057 18.

The total receipts of the Candidates' Fund are $52,077 92. This is the largest sum for candidates received into the Treasury of the Board of Education since its organization in 1819. The increase, above the receipts of last year in this fund, is $4974 85.

2. The Board also report that there has never been so little outward agency in the collection of funds, as during the past year. The plan of systematic benevolence, or of free-will offerings from the churches at regular periods under the supervision of the Pastors and Sessions is working with great efficiency—as might be expected from a plan that has the direct recommendation and sanction of the Scriptures. So well has this plan worked in securing funds for the education of candidates, that the Board has not found it necessary to make any special appeal to the churches.

3. The experience of the Board of Education is, that the supply of funds has always equalled the demand. When the General Assembly increased the annual appropriations to candidates, the churches increased their contributions proportionably; and when the number of candidates was enlarged, in the providence and by the grace of God, a corresponding enlargement of pecuniary resources simultaneously followed.

4. A regular and steady advance has taken place in the funds of the Board for the last ten years, with a single slight exception, such as might be expected in operations of this nature. The following table shows the receipts for ten years, in the fund for Candidates:—

1850,	-	-	-	-	-	$28,460 10
1851,	-	-	-	-	-	31,721 80
1852,	-	-	-	-	-	32,617 04
1853,	-	-	-	-	-	32,519 52
1854,	-	-	-	-	-	34,961 26
1855,	-	-	-	-	-	35,766 71
1856,	-	-	-	-	-	40,680 04
1857,	-	-	-	-	-	43,372 31
1858,	-	-	-	-	-	47,103 07
1859,	-	-	-	-	-	52,077 92

5. The very large increase of new candidates this year, will call for an increase of pecuniary means. Nearly forty new candidates beyond the number received last year, indicates that the aggregate number on the roll for the coming year, will exceed four hundred.

The Report closes with some remarks on the best way of raising funds for the support of needy institutions under the care of the Church; and the plan proposed is that of uniting alms with prayer, and of taking up collections on the last Thursday of February.

Recording Secretary—Rev. Charles K. Imbrie.

Treasurer—William Rankin, Jr., Esq.

Auditors—Messrs. James Donaldson and Ebenezer Platt.

The Board will hold its next Annual Meeting in the Mission House, New York, on the first Monday in May, 1860, at 4 o'clock, P. M.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT, APRIL 30, 1859.

FINANCES.—The receipts from all sources, including $18,112 57
special funds for India from last year's Report, were	- -	$230,030 57
The expenditures,	- - - - -	222,244 75
Balance,	- - - - -	$7,785 82

being unexpended special funds for India.

PUBLICATIONS.—Annual Report of 1858: 3400 copies were published in pamphlet form, and 19,100 copies as an extra number of the Home and Foreign Record. Of the Foreign Missionary, 4000 copies in pamphlet form are published monthly, and 27,000 copies of the newspaper edition for children.

MISSIONARIES SENT OUT.—To the Indian Tribes, thirteen missionaries and assistant missionaries; to South America, two; to Western Africa, four; to India, six; to Japan, two.

NEW MISSIONS.

Three new missions are to be formed in South America, in Western Africa, and in Japan. For Japan, a medical missionary and his wife have recently embarked, and they will be joined by a minister and his wife from one of the missions in China. For Brazil, which is also a new field of missionary labour, and for new stations in Africa, four ministers will go forth in a few weeks.

MISSIONS.

These are found among nine of the Indian Tribes; in South America, at two important cities in different countries; in Western Africa, at several places in Liberia, and near the equator; in North India, at fifteen stations; in Siam; in China, at three large cities, with a mission to the Chinese in California; among the Jews; and in Europe, by means of pecuniary aid furnished to Evangelical Societies in France, Belgium, Holland, Geneva, and the Waldensian Synod. Connected with these missions, but not including the European, there are

73	ordained ministers,
27	laymen assistants,
101	female assistants,
52	native assistants,
1158	communicants, and
2310	scholars.

The actual numbers of native assistants, church members, and scholars, are larger than these returns, reports not having been received from some of the stations. New converts have been added to the churches of Spencer, Goodwater, Wappanucka, Oakridge, Iowa, Grand Traverse, and Little Traverse, among the Indians; Monrovia, Kentucky, Sinou, and Corisco, in Africa; Lahor, Jalandar, Lodiana, Ambala, Sabathu, Saharunpur, Dehra, and Futtehgurh, in India; and Ningpo, in China.

ENLARGED EFFORTS.

These are loudly called for in making the Gospel known to the people that sit in darkness and the shadow of death. The settlement of late disturbances in India places the missionary and the native Christian on more advantageous ground than was ever before within their reach, for the spread of the Gospel among the dense masses of the people of that country. The late treaties with China have given entrance to a country which is a world in itself. The empire of Japan no longer closes the door against foreigners, and the Gospel will soon gain new triumphs in these beautiful islands. China and Japau lie over against our own country, in the same parallels of latitude, across the Pacific—a name describing our national intercourse with their inhabitants, and suggestive of the great blessings to be conveyed to them by the churches of our land. In Africa and South America, new ground should be occupied. In still other fields, much land is yet to be possessed. In ending one missionary year and entering upon another, therefore, the church represented by this Board is called and encouraged to make vigorous, hearty, and hopeful efforts to extend the knowledge of the Gospel among all nations.

FORM OF A DEVISE, OR BEQUEST.

To the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of _____; or, I devise a certain message and tract of land, &c., to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Publication, according to the provisions of their charter.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT, 1859.

The colportage operations of the Board were during the last year conducted, in consequence of the pecuniary embarrassments recently prevailing throughout the country, on a somewhat reduced scale. Still, as compared with former years, it is able, by Divine favour, to report results in every department of its efforts, highly encouraging to all who take an interest in its prosperity. The following very brief summary is condensed from the Annual Report.

I. In the Department of Production. During the year there have been printed 70 new works, of which 51 were new volumes. Of these volumes 98,000 copies have been printed. Of 19 new tracts 54,500 copies have been printed, and 15,000 copies of the Presbyterian Almanac, making in all 167,500 copies of new publications. Besides these, there have been published 272,000 copies of new editions of volumes, and 473,500 copies of tracts and pamphlets before upon the Board's Catalogue.

Thus the total number of copies issued during the year has been 913,000.

This makes the total number of publications, issued by the Board since its organization, amount to 7,732,938 copies.

The Report makes special mention of the "Letters of John Calvin," in 4 vols. octavo, the first two of which are now out, and which is a work of rare interest. It announces Fairchild's "Great Supper," in German, as being now in the press, and several German tracts as recently issued. It also alludes to an important cheap edition in tract form of "The Confession of Faith," furnished at five cents per copy.

New, instructive, and popular volumes, are continually added to the Sabbath-school Library of the Board, which is more and more in demand.

Periodicals. The circulation of the Home and Foreign Record now amounts to 17,650 copies.

The circulation of the Sabbath-school Visitor has increased 4,000 during the year, and now amounts to 58,000 copies.

II. In the department of Distribution.

1. By regular trade sales at the Depository in Philadelphia have been sent out 224,400 volumes; an increase of 33,007 volumes on the sales of the preceding year. The sales of tracts at the same place have amounted to 1,490,650 pages, being an increase of 783,687 pages.

2. The Executive Committee have granted in response to special appeals, to ministers, ships, humane institutions, &c., and to individuals for gratuitous distribution, 5,345 volumes, and 347,138 pages of tracts.

3. The number of colporteurs in commission during the year has been largely reduced, owing to the pecuniary embarrassments of the country, which at the beginning especially of the year greatly affected the Colportage Fund. The number in commission last year was 263, the number this year 143. The Board is now again slowly and carefully increasing their number. These colporteurs have traversed portions of nearly all our States and Territories, besides the British Provinces on the North and North-east. The books and tracts of the Board have thus been largely scattered over all the frontier and destitute portions of the land.

The number of volumes this year sold by colporteurs, has been 92,068. This is of course a much smaller number than the aggregate of last year, but gives a larger number of volumes sold by each colporteur in commission this year than the last.

The pages of tracts gratuitously distributed by colporteurs has been 1,217,573; very nearly as many as were last year distributed by a much larger body of men. The number of volumes gratuitously distributed by colporteurs has been 11,184. The number of families visited has been 72,537. Taking into the account the smaller number of labourers in the field this year, all these figures compare most favourably with the results of last year.

The total distribution of the year has been as follows:

Sales at the Depository, - - - - -	224,400	volumes.
“ by colporteurs, - - - - -	92,068	“
Given by colporteurs, - - - - -	11,184	“
Granted by Executive Committee, - - - - -	5,345	“

Total of volumes, 332,997

being a decrease, owing to the smaller number of colporteurs employed, of 4,549 volumes.

Pages of tracts distributed:

Sold at the Depository, - - - -	1,490,650 pages.
Distributed by colporteurs, - - - -	1,217,573 "
Granted by Executive Committee, - -	347,138 "

Total, 3,055,351 "

Besides the above matter, the Board has also circulated a large number of pamphlets and periodical papers.

III. In the Department of Sustentation, the Treasurer's Report shows an aggregate of receipts for the year of $129,698.31, which is an increase of $2,738.03 over the receipts of the year before. The total of expenditures of all kinds has been $107,561.02, an increase of $759.34 over those of the year before, leaving March 1, 1859, a balance of $22,137.29 in the Treasurer's hands, a large part of which would speedily be called for, however, by works in course of publication.

The amount received from sales of books, tracts, and Sabbath-school Visitor, has been $76,714.35, or $4,128.51 less than the year before, owing to the smaller number of colporteurs in commission.

The Colportage Fund. The amount received from all sources for this Fund, has been $24,817.00, which is an increase of $3,448.24 over the receipts of last year. The contributions from churches have amounted to $22,952.47, an increase over last year's receipts from this source of $5,801.55; a very pleasing evidence of an increased interest and affection for this cause among the churches. The receipts from legacies and miscellaneous sources have been $1864.53;—less than half the sum received last year from this source.

The balance against the Colportage Fund on March 1, 1858, was $8,628.46; on March 1, 1859, it was $3,300.76; having been reduced in the sum of $5,457.70. The last two years have comprehended a period of almost unexampled pecuniary embarrassment; yet during this whole time the Board has not had a single collecting agent in the field. It has relied wholly on the pastors to secure and forward the contributions of the churches, and experience has shown that the Board can safely rely upon them.

CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE.

COMMITTEE ROOMS, No. 88 Market street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Corresponding Secretary—REV. H. I. COE.

Treasurer—ARCHIBALD GAMBLE, ESQ.

Communications on the subject of Church Extension, should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, No. 88 Market street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Donations should be sent to Archibald Gamble, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.; or, if more convenient, to J. D. Thorpe, Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio; A. Davidson, Esq., Louisville, Ky.; S. D. Powel, Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Domestic Missions, 910 Arch street, Philadelphia; T. H. Nevin, Esq., Pittsburgh, Pa.; or to William Rankin, Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions, 23 Centre street, New York.

ABSTRACT OF THE FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

During the entire period covered by their Fourth Annual Report, the Church Extension Committee laboured under great embarrassments. They began the year with liabilities exceeding their means on hand more than $7000. Those liabilities were indeed neither immediate nor pressing, but they were still pledges to be met as they matured, and rendered it necessary to be very cautious in making additional appropriations. The embarrassment arising from this source was greatly increased by the unprecedented influx of applications. While the applications for 1857-8 numbered only one hundred, calling for $45,000, they rose in 1858-9 to one hundred and forty-one, calling for more than $62,000. Various causes combined to swell so largely the list of applications. The great revival of 1858 caused many churches to arise and build. The diminished cost of labour and materials encouraged others to undertake the work. Successive failures of the crops in large sections of the south-west and north-west, and the general prostration of business everywhere, forced some to ask aid, who in ordinary times could have built without help.

Notwithstanding these difficulties, God prospered the work of Church building through the Committee during the year ending April 1, 1859. During that time every appropriation was paid as soon as properly called for, without borrowing a dollar. The number of churches to whom appropriations were thus paid was seventy-six, being eleven more than during the previous year. In the same time, appropriations were made to eighty-three churches, or seven more than in the preceding twelve months. The receipts of 1858-9 exceed those of 1857-8 $46.00, and the number of contributing churches named in the present Report is 565, against 518 reported last year. Only five applications were declined during the year.

In all cases where the necessary information was furnished, appropriations were made generally sufficient to relieve the applicants, though in a number of instances much smaller than the Committee desired to make. The year closed with ninety-one applications on file, calling for at least $41,000. Nine of these were in a condition to be acted upon by the Committee immediately, but a very considerable number of them will soon be pressed. There are numerous indications that many churches will be built the present year, and that many will need aid in building. Some of these indications will appear from the detailed report of the operations of the year, and of our destitutions herewith submitted.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid, received from April 1, 1858, to April 1, 1859, was one hundred and forty-one. These applications were from churches in the bounds of thirty-one Synods, eighty-two Presbyteries, and twenty-nine States and Territories. One hundred and sixteen of these churches ask for aid, amounting in the aggregate to $51,257.25, or at the average rate of $411.87 each. The remaining twenty-five churches have not yet stated definitely the smallest sums from the Committee, that will enable them to complete their houses of worship free from debt, but at the average of the others, would swell the aggregate amount of aid asked for during the year to $62,304. Besides these new applications, there were on file and undisposed of, April 1, 1858, sixty applications, calling for not less than $25,000. The Committee, therefore, had before them during the last year two hundred and one applications, asking for more than $87,000.

On the 21st of February, 1859, the Committee unanimously adopted the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That all applications for aid which have remained on file, or shall hereafter remain on file two years, without the applicants furnishing the additional information asked for by the Church Extension Committee, shall be regarded as withdrawn."

In accordance with this resolution, thirty-two applications, calling for aid to the amount of $13,370, have been stricken from the file. These applications, and any others that may in like manner be erased, will be treated by the Committee as though they had never been presented. They are not to be considered as declined, nor, if renewed, will they be looked upon with more or less favour than those presented for the first time. The action of the Committee simply renders it necessary for them to procure a new recommendation of Presbytery, and furnish the usual information in full, before an appropriation can be made to them. It is but just to new applicants that such a rule should be established. In making appropriations, the Committee must have some regard to the applications on file, and other things being equal, give the preference to those of longest standing. There ought, however, to be a limit to this, and surely no church ought to complain of losing this preference, if it fails within two years to furnish the information the Committee have asked it to give. Again, a proper respect for Presbyteries requires such a resolution. Except in very extraordinary cases, no appropriation is made without the recommendation of the Presbytery within whose bounds the church seeking aid is located. Presbyteries, therefore, share largely with the Committee the responsibility of their appropriations. It is, then, but right that Presbyteries should have an opportunity of re-examining those requests for aid which the delay of applicants themselves has prevented the Committee from granting within so long a time as two years. In that time the condition of a church may change greatly.

The withdrawal of the thirty-two applications referred to above, left on file, April 1, 1859, awaiting the receipt of additional information, and, therefore, not yet acted upon, ninety one applications. They may safely be said to ask for $41,000.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year ending April 1, 1859, appropriations amounting to $23,970.15 were made to eighty-three churches, in thirty Synods, sixty Presbyteries, and twenty-five States and Territories. The names and localities of these churches are appended to this report. The average amount appropriated to each of these eighty-three churches was $288.79, or leaving out of view nine special appropriations for which the Committee take no responsibility, the average to each of the others is $239.90. Seventy-six churches received their appropriations during the year. The amount paid to these churches was $20,504.90. Apart from special donations, no appropriations larger than $500, and but six larger than $400, were made during the year.

From April 1, 1858, to April 1, 1859, appropriations amounting to $3675 were withdrawn from thirteen churches, whose names and localities are given in the Appendix. The appropriations to seven of these churches were renewed during the year.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The appropriated balance in the treasury of the Church Extension Committee, April 1, 1858, was $8991.70. The receipts from all sources, from April 1, 1858, to April 1, 1859, were $29,342.32. Of which $23,744.91 was from churches, $2600 from legacies, $2513.92 from individuals, $138.50 from Sabbath-schools, and $344.99 from interest and exchange. The available resources of the year were, therefore, $38,334.02.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement, appended to this report, were $23,538.68, leaving in the treasury, April 1, 1859, an appropriated balance of $14,795.34. There were, however, unpaid at that date, appropriations to fifty-eight churches, amounting to $16,029.75. The liabilities of the Committee, therefore, exceeded their means on hand, at the close of the fourth fiscal year, $1234.41. For fourteen of these unpaid appropriations, amounting to $5393.75, the Committee were not, however, immediately liable at that time, as, by the terms on which they were made, they did not become due until after April 1, 1859.

The Committee continue to anticipate their income; to receive special donations, and to make special appropriations in accordance with the facts and principles stated in their last annual report.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.

It has always been our conviction that the gifts of the benevolent should not be used to build expensive churches, suited to pamper pride and gratify vanity. How far our practice has conformed to this conviction, will appear from the following facts: Leaving out of view twenty special appropriations, for which we take no responsibility, the present Church Extension Committee, since its organization, July 1855, has made appropriations to two hundred and fifty-five different churches. As nearly as can be ascertained, the average cost of these two hundred and fifty-five churches is $2097 each. Two hundred and eighteen of them ranged in cost from $500 to $3000; twenty-eight from $3000 to $5000; and nine from $5000 to $10,000. Nearly all the more expensive buildings were in important points, where a large previous outlay by persons on the ground was saved to our Zion by a comparatively small sum from the Committee.

Of the eighty-three appropriations made during the year ending April 1, 1859, nine were special appropriations. Of the remaining seventy-four church edifices, sixty-five cost from $500 to $3000; eight from $3000 to $5000; and one nearly $6000. The nine houses costing over $3000, could, in many parts of the Church, have been built for $3000, or less.

When it is remembered that most of the churches aided by the Committee have had to pay from $3 to $5 per hundred feet for lumber, from $9 to $12 per thousand for brick in the wall, and from $2 to $4 per day for mechanics' wages, and that a large part of the aid dispensed has gone to those frontier regions where building is so expensive, that a house that could be built in some parts of the Church for $1000, costs $2000, no reasonable man will think the funds entrusted to the Committee have been used to build unduly expensive edifices.

SIZE OF CHURCHES.

As nearly as can be ascertained, the number of members in the 255 churches aided, averaged thirty-four to each church. Two hundred and twenty-three churches reported from three to sixty members, and thirty-two, over sixty members. Fully one-half of all the churches aided had less than thirty members.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.

The Committee have continued to distribute the funds entrusted to them, as equitably as possible, over the whole Church. In addition to the fact that the eighty-three appropriations of the fourth fiscal year were scattered over thirty Synods, sixty Presbyteries, and twenty-five States and Territories, another fact ought to be mentioned, viz., that since July, 1855, the Committee have declined to make an appropriation to only five of the 281 different churches that have furnished the necessary information. Four of these five asked for sums entirely beyond the ability of the Committee, and one was a Union church.

CHURCH EXTENSION DESTITUTIONS AND WANTS.

Your Committee have continually felt it to be very important to obtain a full view of the destitutions and wants of the Church, in their department of labour. This information they have sought repeatedly, and in different ways. Finding all other methods inadequate, they, during the year under review, addressed a circular to all our churches with whose condition they were unacquainted. This circular contained, among others, the following inquiries, viz. Does your church own a house of worship sufficient for its present wants, and free from debt? In building your house of worship (if you have one,) did you obtain aid outside of your own community? If you are without a suitable church edifice, can you secure one without aid from the Church at large? The replies we have received, and the information we have derived from other reliable sources, enable us to report the condition of two thousand two hundred and sixty-seven churches, or of about two-thirds of the whole number of churches now in connection with the General Assembly. Of these 2267 churches, five hundred and fifty-three, or nearly one in four, have no house of worship. Twenty-six churches worship in Union houses; one hundred and sixty-eight report their houses of worship as insufficient for their present wants; one hundred and ninety are in debt; seven hundred and seventy-seven had aid from abroad in building their church edifices; and three hundred and seventy-three cannot build without aid from the Church at large. We have the names of all these different churches on file in our office.

These simple but startling facts show, more clearly than anything else, the magnitude of the Church Extension work, and we commend them to the earnest attention of the Assembly and the Church.

Fred. Howard Wines,	Washington College, Pa.
John Frothingham,	“ “ “
S. Orlando Lee,	“ “ “
George P. Lockwood, not a graduate, and Miles C. Wilson, matriculated in 1855, and returned to the Seminary.

Of these new students, W. B. Truax came from the Theological Seminary at Danville, Ky.; J. S. Beekman, Marvin Briggs, and A. T. Waterman, from the Union Theological Seminary of New York; S. Miller Moore, and G. Wendell Prime, from the Union Theological Seminary of Virginia; William Lusk, from the Theological Seminary at Auburn, N. Y.; John H. Elliott, from the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Alexandria, Va.; James Jamieson, from the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary, at Gambier, Ohio; James Gibson, from the Theological Seminary of the General Assembly of Ireland, at Belfast; and S. B. Taggart, from the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church at Allegheny City.

The whole number of students in connection with the Seminary, more or less regularly, during the year, is one hundred and eighty-five.

The Professors, in their report to the Board, state that the diligence and punctuality of the students have been commendable, with but few exceptions; and that there has been a remarkable degree of good health, promoted very much by their unusual attention to exercise. A new building for gymnastic exercises has been erected on the Seminary grounds, by the enterprise of the students, partly from their own contributions, and mainly from the generous donations of their friends in the neighbouring cities.

The Professors in their report, also stated that prayer and conference meetings have been crowded all the session; a deep and increasing interest has been shown in the work of foreign missions, and the questions of personal duty. Some six members of the senior class have given themselves to the foreign field; eight or nine have determined to go west of the Mississippi, including one to California; and some fifteen have already been chosen pastors among the vacant churches.

At the close of the session the students were examined for five days, in presence of a Committee of the Board.

This Committee, in their report to the Board, expressed their high approbation of the evident fidelity and skill of the Professors, and the diligence and attainments of their pupils. "We have no hesitation," say the Committee, "in saying, that so far as our observation goes, there have been no more satisfactory and successful examinations. It would seem," add they, "that the outpouring of Divine influence upon the churches has not only turned so many to seek the gospel ministry, that this Seminary has been attended during the past year by an unusually large amount of pupils; but it has been cherished by them, and its presence and power have purified and stimulated them to unusual diligence and devotion to the preparatory duties, studies, and exercises which have occupied them here."

Certificates of having finished the whole course prescribed in the Plan, were conferred on the following forty-one students, viz. J. Bailie Adams, T. C. Anderson, Joseph M. Bostick, Chester Bridgman, Robert C. Bryson, Philip S. Caffrey, David T. Campbell, Charles R. Clarke, John Darroch, D. Owen Davies, R. Hamill Davis, Noble L. De Votie, Joseph T. Duryea, Benjamin S. Everett, J. M. W. Farnham, H. Graham Finney, James Gibson, John S. Gilmor, D. Melville Heydrick, Henry F. Hicok, William L. Kennedy, Henry F. Lee, James Little, J. Laney Lower, William D. Mackey, Charles Manly, William R. Marshall, J. Leverett Merrill, William T. Morrison, R. Hamill Nassau, Moses Noerr, Isaac M. Patterson, Robert M. Patterson, Robert Proctor, Owen Reidy, William L. Rosser, Alexander Scott, Horace L. Singleton, Joseph D. Smith, William Howell Taylor, and Jacob Weidman.

The Board have to report, that they received from the Professors a written request, recommending the re-adjustment of their titles and departments of instruction, with a view to restore, as far as possible, the distribution and arrangement which existed twenty years ago, and then received the sanction of the Church, confirmed and justified by subsequent experience.

The recommendation of the Professors was adopted by the Board, and is as follows, viz. That no change be made in Dr. Hodge's chair; that Dr. McGill be styled Professor of Church History and Practical Theology, the latter to include all the functions of the ministerial office, to wit, Church Government, Preaching, and the Pastoral care; that Dr. Green be Professor of Oriental and Old Testament Literature; and that Dr. Alexander be Professor of Hellenistic (or Biblical) Greek and New Testament Literature.

The Professors, in their annual report to the Board, submitted the importance of having another building erected without delay, for the accommodation of students.

The Board, after due consideration, passed the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That this Board cordially approve of the recommendation of the Faculty, respecting the erection of additional buildings; and that the Board of Trustees be requested to adopt the proper measures for carrying the same into effect.

Resolved, 2. That a committee be appointed, with powers to confer and co-operate with any committee which may be appointed on this subject by the Board of Trustees.

The following Directors were appointed this Committee on the part of this Board, viz. Rev. Dr. C. Van Rensselaer, Rev. Dr. W. W. Phillips, Rev. Dr. Henry, A. Boardman, Judge Stacy G. Potts, and Mr. Moses Allen.

The Board would report that at the present meeting a letter was received from Mr. John Fine, a Director, resigning his office. One year of the term for which Judge Fine was elected remains unexpired. If the Assembly accept his resignation, they will of course elect a person, for one year, to fill his place as Director.

The Board have also to report, that the Rev. Dr. Jacob J. Janeway departed this life on the 28th day of June last. Dr. Janeway had long been a valuable member of the Board, and at the time of his decease had been its President for nine years. His term of office as a Director would have expired at this time.

The Board have only further to report, that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the sessions of the Assembly, viz.

Ministers.

Jacob J. Janeway, D. D., deceased.

Nicholas Murray, D. D.

Henry A. Boardman, D. D.

John C. Backus, D. D.

William W. Phillips, D. D.

John M. Krebs, D. D.

Cortland Van Rensselaer, D. D.

Ruling Elders.

James N. Dickson.

Moses Allen.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, located at Princeton, New Jersey, present to the General Assembly the following as their Thirty-fourth Annual Report.

The following is the Report of their Treasurer, James S. Green, Esq., audited by their Auditing Committee, and approved by the Board, viz.

The Committee on the Treasurer's accounts, report that they have examined the same, with the vouchers, and find them correct, leaving in his hands on general account, the sum of $4005 85½.

The Treasurer has received since the last settlement in April, 1858, on Contingent Fund, $3106 52. Which, added to $49 93, the balance due this Fund on former settlement, makes the sum of $3156 45. And the Treasurer has paid from this Fund, for Clerk's salary, slating roof of the Seminary, servants' wages, tax, and light, and other contingent expenses, the sum of $2969 95½—leaving a balance in his hands, due this Fund, of $186 49½.

The Treasurer has received on the Permanent Fund, since the last settlement, $7872 70, which, added to $160 88, the balance at last settlement, makes the sum of $8033 50. And he has paid out of this Fund, for salaries of Professors, and house rent, $6150; and the sum of $300 for interest on the house occupied by Professor Hodge—leaving in his hands a balance of $1583 58 to meet the salaries, &c. falling due the first of May, 1859.

The Treasurer has received, on the Scholarships, Students' Fund, and interest on investments belonging to the Education Fund, the sum of $7638 42, which, added to the balance due this Fund on former settlement, $3099 91, makes the sum of $10,738 33. And he has paid out of this Fund to students, on the order of Professors, and for investments, the sum of $8502 63; leaving in his hands $2235 70 due this Fund.

April 27, 1859.

From the Librarian's Report, it appears there have been added to the Library, through the year, by donation, 186 volumes; making the entire number now belonging to the Library 14,847 volumes. Of these donations, 48 volumes were presented by James Lenox, Esq., of extreme variety and value; among which were the reprint just issued of the celebrated Codex Vaticanus, in 5 volumes, in large quarto, and the various publications of Cardinal Mai, drawn from the treasures of the Vatican; Scriptorum Veterum Collectio, 10 volumes quarto; Classicorum Auctorum Collectio, 10 volumes; Spicilegium Romanum, 10 volumes; Nova Patrum Bibliotheca, 7 volumes—ten of these volumes are of an edition of which only twelve copies were issued. Thirty-six volumes by Messrs. R. L. & A. Stuart, comprising among others the new edition of Horne's Introduction, in 4 volumes; Zeuss Celtic Grammar, in 2 volumes; the Roman Missal; a very rare edition of the New Testament, in both ancient and modern Greek; early editions of the Works of Tertullian and Justin Martyr; Quintilianus' Declarations; Des Cartes' Epistles; Duns Scotus on the Metaphysics of Aristotle; L'Enfant's History of the Hussite War and the Council of Basle; Bouchon's Choix et Ouvrages Mystiques, etc. Thirty-six volumes from Rev. John B. French, late missionary to China, comprising the Imperial Chinese Dictionary, in 32 volumes; the four Books and the Five Classics, or the Bible complete in 4 volumes. Forty-five volumes of their recent issues from the Presbyterian Board of Publication; eight volumes of bound French Tracts, by Rev. James T. Helm; four volumes from Rev. E. Davies; one from Rev. G. L. More; one from Messrs. Carter & Brothers; one from Rev. Dr. Hewitt; one volume from Mr. S. G. Visscher; one volume from Rev. D. Fraser, of Montreal; and four volumes from an unknown source.

Clothing for the Students has been received from the Female Charitable Society of Morris Plain, New Jersey; the Third church of Newark, New Jersey; and from the churches in New York, of which the Rev. Dr. James W. Alexander, and the Rev. Dr. George Potts are pastors.

The Board have to report to the Assembly, that it has pleased God in his providence, to remove by death the Rev. Dr. James Carnahan, their President. He died March 3d, 1859.

During the present sessions of the Board, they received from the Board of Directors the following extract from the Minutes of their proceedings:

Resolved, That this Board cordially approve of the recommendation of the Faculty respecting the erection of additional buildings, and that the Board of Trustees be requested to adopt the proper measures for carrying the same into effect.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed, with powers to confer and co-operate with any committee which may be appointed on this subject by the Board of Trustees."

After due consideration, the Board of Trustees passed the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, That the erection of another building, or buildings, be approved, and that the Hon. William Henry Green, Dr. William Shippen, Hon. Dudley S. Gregory, Dr. Samuel H. Pennington, and Rev. Dr. Eli F. Cooley, be a Committee, with powers to co-operate with the Committee of the Board of Directors on the subject.

Resolved, That the above Committee be directed to inquire whether any ground may be secured in connection with the present grounds of the Seminary; and that they also be directed to submit their plans of buildings to the Board, for their approval, before they proceed to their erection.

The Treasurer informed the Board, that the late Mr. Hugh Auchincloss, of the city of New York, had bequeathed in his will the sum of $2500, to found a Scholarship in this Seminary. The following is an extract from his will: "I give and bequeath the sum of $2500 to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, for the endowment of a Scholarship, to be called the Auchincloss Scholarship, the beneficiary of which shall be named by my Executors, and the survivor and survivors of them."

This legacy was not properly payable during the lifetime of the widow of the deceased, but she has generously authorized the executors to pay it now, which has been done.

The Treasurer laid before the Board a letter from Henry Young, Esq., of the city of New York, proposing to pay him, as Treasurer, the sum of $3000, to found a Scholarship in the Seminary, which sum shall be invested in a bond and mortgage in the city of New York, on good productive property, worth at least double the amount loaned; and to be kept so invested, and in no other manner. The interest which shall accrue to be used and applied by the Board to the maintenance and support of one pious young man, who may be preparing to preach the Gospel in the Presbyterian Church, in connection with the Princeton Seminary; and that the interest may, through all time, be used in preparing an efficient minister of the Gospel. Mr. Young retains the right to name the beneficiary during his life; the same privilege to descend to such member of his family as he may legally designate; and in case such designation is not made, then the right to be exercised by his eldest living son.

On the above letter the Board passed the following:

Resolved, That the said donation, which has been paid to Mr. John C. Green, be accepted, and invested according to the directions of the donor; and that a Scholarship be founded in this Seminary, to be called the "Henry Young Scholarship."

The Treasurer further reported, that he had received from Henry Day, Esq., of the city of New York, a bond and mortgage, given by Henry L. Bulkley to Henry Day, dated October 1, 1857, conditioned for the payment of $2000 on the first day of October, 1860, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent., payable semi-annually—interest endorsed paid to May 1, 1858; also a promissory note of Henry Day to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary, for $150, with interest semi-annually, dated May 1, 1858, payable one year after date. The bond and mortgage are assigned to the Trustees of the Seminary. Mr. Day makes these a gift to the Seminary, to found a Scholarship for the support of a student in the Seminary preparing for the ministry. The interest on the bond and note, at 7 per cent., will yield $150 per year, the sum necessary to found a Scholarship, to be called the "Day Scholarship"—Mr. Day to name, from time to time, the beneficiary before the beginning of the August term. If not done at that time, the Professors will nominate the beneficiary.

On the above communication the Board passed the following:

Resolved, That the donation of Mr. Henry Day be accepted; and that when the sum required by the resolution of the General Assembly as to Scholarships, be invested, the Scholarship to be called the "Day Scholarship," be founded.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed by order of the Board,

JOHN McDOWELL, Secretary.

Of the above number, William T. Beatty was received from the Danville Theological Seminary.

The whole number in connection with the Seminary during the past year has been one hundred and twenty-nine.

The following twenty students have completed the whole course of studies prescribed in the Institution, and received the usual diploma, viz. Alexander L. Blackford, William A. Burchfield, Thomas C. Campbell, Ira M. Condit, Daniel W. Cooper, Jeremiah Calvin Gillam, David D. Green, John D. Howey, Orr Lawson, Pollard McC. Morgan, Benjamin F. Myers, Nicholas V. Morrow, Henry R. Peairs, James A. Reed, George Scott, J. A. E. Simpson, John M. Smith, M. M. Travis, Marcus Wishart, and Benjamin D. B. Wikoff.

The students were examined at the close of the term in the presence of a Committee of the Board, who say in their report, that they “have great pleasure in reporting their satisfaction in view of the comprehensiveness and thoroughness of the course of study, and of the proficiency of the students, as it was manifest in the examinations generally.”

The Faculty report to the Board, that they have not known any session which has been so especially characterized by a lively piety among the students. As part of their daily exercise and recreation, some of them have engaged in distributing tracts among the destitute of the two cities; others, in gathering children into the Sabbath-schools, or in planting new Sabbath-schools where they were lacking, and great good has thus been done to themselves and to the community. In connection with the several churches, they have made themselves useful in the social prayer-meetings, and in other active agencies for good under the direction of the pastors. The daily noon-day prayer-meeting in both cities has been started and sustained very much by their earnest effort, yet all in a way not to interfere with their regular Seminary duties. The Faculty have encouraged this religious engagedness in the students, always, however, within the bounds of their allowance for recreation, and they have witnessed the beneficial effects upon the lively piety of the institution.

Never within the knowledge of the Professors has there been such a large share of devotement to the Foreign Missionary work. A weekly prayer-meeting among the students, for such as seriously entertain the thought of Foreign Missionary labour, has been one of the chief religious features of the session; and we are happy to report that several have already signified their purpose to serve the Church of Christ among the heathen in different parts of the world, and others will probably arrive at the same decision. One of these, John Watson Hughes, of the senior class, who had thus devoted himself, was most suddenly called, in the midst of the term, to the higher work above. He was from a ministerial family, the son and nephew of excellent ministers of our Church. In a mysterious and most impressive manner, with less than two hours' warning, and from fullest strength, he fell asleep in Jesus. Some have been led by his removal to devote themselves to the foreign field in his stead.

The health of the students has been remarkably good, and the Faculty feel bound to record with gratitude to God the uniform healthfulness of the classes, who from different parts of the land, sojourn here.

The Faculty also report, that the attendance of the students upon the course of study has been regular and interested; except that towards the close of the term, some have been drawn off by meetings of their respective Presbyteries, or by the openings of schools which they had taken for the summer vacation.

The Board take pleasure in reporting to the General Assembly the growing prosperity of the Institution committed to their care, under the continued smiles of the Great Head of the Church; and also record their gratitude to God for the favour which he has given to our Seminary in the eyes of his people, and especially in view of the largely increased accommodations now in progress of erection for the use of the students, by the very liberal gift of a benevolent lady.

At the late meeting of the Board, the following resolution was adopted, viz.

“Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to change the time of closing the session to the Wednesday preceding the fourth Tuesday in April.”

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the sessions of the Assembly, viz.

During the past year some effort has been made to secure the endowment of the fourth Professorship, and the work is still progressing. A scholarship has also been founded by Rev. R. W. Dickenson, styled and called by the Trustees, "The Dickenson Scholarship."

By the liberality of friends of the Institution, ground has been purchased, adjoining the Seminary property, upon which a large building is now in progress of erection, for the accommodation of students. This building will be a great convenience to many students who wish to study and lodge near the Seminary. It will cost over $10,000—the noble donation of one liberal-minded lady.

The Library has been increased by a donation from Rev. George D. Armstrong, D. D., of “Theology of Experience,” “Doctrine of Baptism.”

From Samuel B. Scheiflin, Esq., a box of tracts and pamphlet on the Eldership.

From Rev. Cyrus Huntington, a complete copy of Calvin’s Works in Latin, 9 vols. folio.

From William A. Davis, a new Dictionary of the Arts and Sciences.

From Rev. Mr. Shannon, by request, a valuable Library, valued at over $500.

From Rev. William M. Blackburn, “Life and Sermons of Rev. Reuben Tinker.”

Rev. William M. Engles, D. D., has donated over five hundred dollars’ worth of valuable works.

Rev. Dr. Creigh, a complete set of the Princeton Review.

From J. K. Caldwell, 25 volumes. The Smithsonian Volumes for the year, “Theism and Skepticism,” by Wharton.

The new volumes of the Presbyterian Board, and 65 volumes by purchase.

Rev. Dr. Halsey has proposed to deposit 2000 additional volumes, a valuable increase of the already large “Halsey Library.”

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, report to the General Assembly, that in the session of 1858-9, seven new students entered the Seminary, viz.

Mr. Thomas Ward White, student of Hampden Sidney College, member of the First Presbyterian Church of Richmond, Virginia, and candidate of East Hanover Presbytery.

Mr. Rutherford Rowland Houston, graduate of Washington College, Virginia, and member of the Presbyterian church of Union, Monroe County, Virginia.

Mr. James Power Smith, graduate of Jefferson College, Pennsylvania, member of the Winchester Presbyterian church, and candidate of the Winchester Presbytery.

Mr. Thornton McNess Niven, graduate of Williams College, Massachusetts, member of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Bloomingburg, New York, late student of Newbury Seminary, and candidate of the Associate Reformed Presbytery of New York.

Mr. Lackland Cumming Vass, graduate of Princeton College, member of the Presbyterian church in Warrenton, Virginia, student of Danville Seminary, and candidate of Winchester Presbytery.

Mr. William N. Kirkpatrick, student of Samuel Davies Institute, member of Milbush church, and candidate of Orange Presbytery.

Mr. Alexander Kirkland, student of Chapel Hill University, and member of Chapel Hill church, North Carolina.

The whole number for the session has been eighteen.

The following students having stood satisfactory examinations on the whole course of study, have received the usual certificate, viz.—Robert H. Caldwell, John Augustine Moore, Bennett W. Moseley.

The Directors would record with gratitude that death has made no breach within the precincts of the Seminary, and that the general health of the students has been good.

The Faculty have reported to the Directors, that the students, during the past year, have been cheerfully diligent in their studies, and faithful in attending on all exercises of the Seminary, and that although their number has been small, in this day too of extensive revivals and large accessions to some of the sister Seminaries, it has been a consolation to indulge in pleasing hopes of the usefulness, by the blessing of God, of every young brother whom He has committed to their charge.

According to the report of the Treasurer, the funds of the Seminary are in the following condition:

Total of vested funds in the Treasurer's keeping per last report,	$97,125 00

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Directors of the Theological Seminary under the care of the General Assembly, at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Sixth Annual Report, as follows:

During the year now closed, the whole number of students in attendance has been forty-seven. Of these, the following nineteen new students have been matriculated:

Henry F. Albright, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
Adam C. Armstrong,	Jefferson College, Pa.
Willis G. Craig,	Centre College, Ky.
Samuel D. Crothers,	"
William Crow,	"
William George,	"
W. Ousley Goodloe,	"
Alexander Henry,	"
Isaac J. Long,	"
George V. Macdona,	Queen's College, Ireland.
Joseph Mack,	Jackson College, Tenn.
R. C. McGee,	Hanover College, Ind.
James H. McNeilly,	Jackson College, Tenn.
John W. Neil,	Hampden Sidney College, Va.
Henry S. L. Rex,	High School of Philadelphia, Pa.
Matthew Van Lear,	College of New Jersey.
William G. White,	Davidson College, N. C.
William Wiley,	Centre College, Ky.
John Woodruff,	"

The following candidates for the ministry having completed the course of study prescribed by the Plan of the Seminary, and having sustained a final examination on the whole course, in the several departments, in the presence of the Board of Directors and the Professors, and being recommended by the Faculty, have received the certificate of the Seminary:

John J. Cooke, of Maryland; William F. Gillespie, of Tennessee; James P.

McMillan, of Georgia; John Montgomery, of Kentucky; R. K. Smoot, of Tennessee; and E. S. Wilson, of Ohio.

Their examination on the whole course was highly creditable to themselves and to their instructors, and eminently satisfactory to the Board of Directors.

The Professors report to the Board that there has been a commendable degree of diligence and devotion to study on the part of the students. Their religious life has been exemplary; and an unusual spirit of piety has been granted to a portion of them. In addition to the daily worship prescribed by the statutes of the Seminary, they have maintained a daily prayer-meeting, beginning early in the session and continuing till its close.

The Report of the Board of Trustees, which will be laid before the General Assembly, shows an augmentation of the funds of the Seminary during the year. But they are not yet adequate to the necessities of the work set before us. We greatly need suitable accommodations for students; a library fund; several scholarships for students in narrow circumstances; and commodious public buildings. The progress of the Seminary hitherto has been attended by such tokens of the Divine favour, and by such indications of the good will of God's people towards it, as to call upon the General Assembly to go forward and fulfil all its constantly avowed designs and its repeated pledges and covenants, by completing its endowment, watching over its interests, and protecting its position among the other institutions of the Church.

The Board, in the discharge of its duty towards the Church, earnestly invokes the attention of the General Assembly to the history and present condition of the Seminary. Its history sums up as follows:

The close of the sixth year of its existence shows an accumulation of funds amounting to about $130,000, yielding an income adequate to the support of four Professors, and to pay current expenses; a valuable library; forty-seven students in attendance upon the instructions of its professors; and about eighty of its alumni preachers of the gospel as ministers or licentiates. Is it the mind of the Assembly to go forward in a work so largely blessed by the Great Head of the Church? We cannot so far distrust our brethren as to doubt their fixed purpose in reference to the complete establishment of the Institution.

The Board informs the General Assembly that the Rev. Dr. Stratton has declined the Professorship of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, to which he was elected by the last Assembly; and, by a unanimous vote, now urgently recommends to this Assembly to fill the professorship by a new election.

The Board records with pain the death of one of its members, Samuel Laird, Esq., of Fayette county, Kentucky, which occurred on the 10th of September last. He was a man devoted to the service of God, and considered himself his steward. His donations to the institutions of the Church, through a long series of years, were numerous and unostentatious; in the aggregate amounting to a very large sum—greater, it has been supposed, than he was at any one time worth. He gave $12,000 to the endowment of "The Centre College of Kentucky," and $20,000 to that of this Seminary; and has left the Boards of our Church his residuary legatees—thus dividing a sum which will probably amount to $20,000 more: and in various ways, and through different agencies, beginning in the congregation of which he was an honoured ruling elder, and reaching into foreign lands, his munificent liberality has been felt in almost every great religious enterprise of his day.

The Librarian reports the following additions to the Library.

By donation:

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, submit the following Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The property and funds of the Seminary are under the care of three distinct Boards of Trustees, namely: The Trustees of the Centre College of Kentucky; the Trustees of the Synodical Fund of the Synod of Kentucky; and the Trustees of this Seminary.

The first named Board has funds amounting to	-	-	-	$5,723 00
The second named Board has funds amounting to	-	-	-	22,400 00
The third named Board has funds amounting to	-	-	-	103,626 00

Making in all, $131,749 00

Being a nett increase within the year of $8495.

The funds consist of stocks of various Banks in the State of Kentucky, stocks of the States of Kentucky and Missouri, City Bonds, Railroad Bonds, Turnpike and other stocks, and individual bonds, in the following proportions, namely:

Kentucky Bank Stocks,	-	-	-	-	-	$39,500 00
State Bonds,	-	-	-	-	-	22,000 00
City Bonds,	-	-	-	-	-	25,000 00
Railroad Bonds,	-	-	-	-	-	8,000 00
Turnpike and other Stocks,	-	-	-	-	-	1,250 00
Individual Bonds,	-	-	-	-	-	35,999 00

Total as above, $131,749 00

Some of these stocks are above par, some below par; the aggregate premium on the former being greater than the aggregate depreciation of the latter—and the greatly depreciated stocks being all specific donations, and very inconsiderable in amount.

What may be called the dead capital of the Seminary, consists of seventeen acres of land, of which seven acres are in the town of Danville, and ten acres adjoining the town; nearly a square in the town, upon which the Seminary buildings stand; two lots in the city of Louisville, subject to the life estate of the aged donor, and the library of the Seminary, the cash value of the whole of which is incapable of very accurate estimation. Either of the two first named pieces of property will answer extremely well for the permanent site of the buildings to be erected, as soon as the wise liberality of the people of God will furnish the Trustees of the Seminary with the necessary means. And then the buildings now occupied can be converted into a capacious Library, sufficient to hold ten times the number of volumes yet owned by the Seminary. The Trustees look with great desire for more rapid progress towards the accomplishment of both of these important objects.

The annual expenses of the Seminary may be stated as follows, supposing the Faculty to be full :

Salaries of four Professors,	-	-	-	-	-	-	$6,000 00
Allowance of house rent to four Professors,	-	-	-	-	-	-	1,000 00
Salary of Business Agent,	-	-	-	-	-	-	500 00
Incidental and Contingent expenses of every kind,	-	-	-	-	-	-	500 00
Total annual expenses,							$8,000 00

There is already a variable annual excess of income over current expenses, and as soon as the amount due from individuals can be collected and invested in public securities, (which is our fixed policy,) this excess of income will be greater and more regularly received. It is invested and added to the capital as fast as it is received. And in this manner, as well as by a rigid economy, and the use of our best skill and diligence in all our transactions, the donations to the Seminary are supplemented, with the view to the large outlay for public buildings before alluded to, and already so urgently demanded by the interests of the Institution.

There are other necessities of the Seminary of the highest kind, which it more appropriately falls to the Board of Directors to urge upon the attention of the Assembly, concerning which the Board of Trustees need hardly say they will use their best endeavours to provide for them to the whole extent that the means placed at their disposal by the charity of the Church will enable them. Profoundly impressed by the great importance of the trust committed to them by the Church, and more and more interested in their part of the work here, which the Lord has so greatly favoured, the Trustees feel well assured that by the steady adherence of the Assembly to the principles and covenants upon which this Seminary was founded, all that was ever expected from it will be realized.

All of which is respectfully submitted to the General Assembly.

J. T. BOYLE, Secretary.

AMENDED CONSTITUTION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTHWEST.

Whereas, The Board of Directors of "The Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest" did, in accordance with the vote of the Synods heretofore having the control thereof, present to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at its sessions held at Indianapolis, in the State of Indiana, in May, 1859, a Resolution previously adopted by the said Board, in the following words, to wit:

"Resolved, That the Constitution of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest be and is hereby so amended that the direction of the said Seminary—the right to determine the number of Directors and Professors, and to appoint the same; and all the powers which have heretofore been vested in the Synods, shall be and hereby are transferred to and vested in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, provided that this direction be accepted by the Assembly.

And whereas, The said Board of Directors did at the same time present to the said General Assembly an overture, praying that the said General Assembly would accept the control and direction of the said Seminary, in accordance with the terms of the said resolution;

And whereas, The said General Assembly did, at its said sessions, resolve to accept, and did accept the same;

And whereas, The Constitution heretofore adopted by the said Synods for the organization and government of the said Seminary has, in consequence of the said resolution, and of the said transfer to the General Assembly, become in many respects inapplicable in its terms and provisions to the present and prospective condition of the Seminary; therefore,

Resolved, That the following be and the same is hereby ordained and established as the Constitution of the said Seminary:

ARTICLE I.—OF THE NAME AND OBJECTS OF THE SEMINARY.

Section 1. The name of the Institution shall be The Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

Sec. 2. The objects of the Seminary shall be, to instruct candidates for the Gospel ministry in the knowledge of the word of God, contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, the only supreme and infallible rule of faith and life; and of the doctrine, order, and institutes of worship taught in the Scriptures, and summarily exhibited in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to cherish in them by all the means of Divine appointment, the life of true godliness; to cultivate in them the gifts which Christ, the Head of the Church, by his Spirit, confers upon those whom he calls to the ministry; and to impart to them, so far as may be, the various learning by which they may be furnished for its work, to the end that there may be trained up a succession of able, faithful, and godly ministers of the Divine Word, as the chief agency under God, ordained in the Church, for the gathering and perfecting of the saints in this life to the end of the world.

ARTICLE II.—OF THE GENERAL SUPERVISION AND CONTROL OF THE SEMINARY.

Section 1. The General Assembly shall have the general supervision and control of the said Seminary, and of all its Directors, Professors, officers, and agents; and shall have power to direct as to its management in all respects; and as to the disposition of its funds and property; to determine the number of its Directors and Professors, and to appoint the same, and to prescribe their term of office; to designate the branches of study to be pursued, and the titles and departments of the respective Professors, and to suspend or remove from office any of the said Professors at its discretion. And shall decide all questions and controversies arising between the Board of Directors and Professors, or between the respective Professors; and all questions referred to it by the Board of Directors; and shall have power of its own motion to review and to confirm, reverse or modify any decision of the Board of Directors, and generally have all other powers necessary for the accomplishment of the object for which the Seminary is established.

ARTICLE III.—OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Section 1. The General Assembly shall elect a Board of Directors for the said Seminary, to consist of not less than thirty-two persons, and composed, as nearly as may be, of an equal number of Ministers and Ruling Elders in regular standing in the Presbyterian Church; and shall, at its regular sessions hereafter, fill all vacancies in the said Board, and elect new Directors in the place of those whose term of office is about to expire.

Sec. 2. At the first election of the said Directors, one-fourth part shall be elected for the term of one year; one-fourth for two years; one-fourth for three years; and one fourth for four years. And the Directors so elected shall hold their offices respectively until the end of the next regular sessions of the General Assembly, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 3. The Board of Directors shall have the superintendence and control of the Seminary and its funds—subject, however, to the supervision of the General Assembly, as provided in Article II.

Sec. 4. Every Director, before taking his seat as a member, shall subscribe the following engagements in a book kept for that purpose, viz.

“I do solemnly promise, in the presence of God and of this Board, that I will faithfully execute the office of a Director of the Presbyterian Seminary of the Northwest, and will support its Constitution and the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church so long as I remain in this office.”

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall meet once in every year at the place where the Seminary is located; and such annual meeting shall be on the Wednesday immediately preceding the close of the Seminary year, unless the Board shall appoint another time; and the Board may meet at other times and places on its own adjournment, and on extraordinary occasions by the call of the President, or other officer having power to convene it.

Sec. 6. Any seven Directors being met at the time and place appointed, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any two Directors so met, may adjourn from time to time until a quorum shall be present.

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors shall choose annually from their own members a President, Vice-President, and a Secretary, who shall hold their offices from the time of their election till the next annual meeting, and until their successors shall be duly appointed.

Sec. 8. The President, or in case of his absence, the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Board, and perform such other duties as naturally belong to his office, and as the Board shall appoint. He may convene, and when requested by any seven members, it shall be his duty to convene the Board; and of the time and place of such special meeting, and the business for which it is called, he shall send a written notice by mail or otherwise, not less than twenty days before the time of such meeting.

Sec. 9. The Secretary shall keep a full and true record of the transactions of the Board, and shall keep all books of records and papers, and perform such other duties as the Board shall direct.

Sec. 10. In the absence of any officer, the Board may appoint some other person to fill his place pro tempore.

Sec. 11. The Board may make rules of order and By-Laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution.

Sec. 12. The Board of Directors shall have power, and it shall be their duty,

1. To superintend, either by itself or by a committee, the annual examinations of the students, and to appoint such other services in connection therewith, as it may think proper.

2. To provide all funds, buildings, libraries, and other means necessary and proper for the use of the Seminary; to appoint a Board of Trustees, and fill all vacancies therein, and to instruct and direct the said Board in respect to the investment, custody, management and disposal of all funds and property of the Institution; to fix the salaries of all Professors and other officers; and, by itself, or the Board of Trustees, to make all appropriations of moneys.

3. To make annually to the General Assembly, in writing, a full and faithful report of the whole state of the Seminary, and of the transactions of the Board; and to recommend such measures as shall appear to be proper for its benefit.

Sec. 13. The Board of Directors shall hold its first meeting in the city of Chicago, Illinois, on the fourth Tuesday of June, 1859, at ten o'clock, A. M. Afterwards, it shall meet on its own adjournment, and in conformity to the provisions of this article.

Sec. 14. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to use and take all proper measures necessary to put the Seminary in operation at the earliest date practicable.

ARTICLE IV.—OF THE PROFESSORS.

Sec. 1. 1st—No person shall be eligible to any Professorship in the Seminary, except a member in full communion in the Presbyterian Church; and no person shall be eligible to the office of Professor of Theology, except a regularly ordained minister in that Church.

2d—Every Professor, before he enters upon the execution of his office, shall subscribe the following engagement, in a book kept for that purpose, namely: “In the presence of God and of the Board of Directors of this Seminary, I do solemnly profess my belief that the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church contain a summary and true exhibition of the system of doctrine, order, and worship taught in the Holy Scriptures, the only supreme and infallible rule of faith, and my approbation of the Presbyterian Form of Church Government, as being agreeable to the Scriptures; and do promise that I will not teach, directly or indirectly, any thing contrary to, or inconsistent with, the said Confession and Catechisms, or the fundamental principles of Presbyterian Church Government; and that I will faithfully execute the office of a Professor in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest.”

Sec. 2. 1st—Each Professor shall have power to conduct the course of instruction in the studies assigned to his department; to preserve order and due attention therein; and to appoint such exercises of religious worship in connection therewith as he may deem proper.

2d—Each Professor, if required, shall lay before the Board of Directors a true and full statement of all text books used by him; and of his whole method of instruction; and shall treat with respectful consideration any suggestions or advice which the Board may give.

Sec. 3. 1st—The Professors of the Seminary shall constitute a Faculty of Instruction and Government; they shall appoint, (unless the Board of Directors otherwise order,) their own Chairman and Secretary; and on every question each Professor shall have one vote.

2d—The Faculty shall meet at such times and places as they shall appoint; and may make rules and by-laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution, as they may deem proper.

3d—The Faculty shall have power, and it shall be their duty:

(1.) To appoint the portion of time and the particular hours the students shall attend the Professors respectively.

(2.) To appoint and direct all exercises to be performed in the presence of the whole Seminary, or in public.

(3.) To appoint the times at which all the students shall assemble together for Divine worship, and to direct the conducting of the same.

(4.) To provide the students, if they shall deem it expedient, with preaching and other ordinances of worship and means of grace, on the Lord's day.

(5.) To establish rules of order, decorum, and duty, for the conduct of the students.

(6.) To inquire into the conduct of the students, and to admonish, suspend, or dismiss any student who shall be found propagating error in doctrine, to be immoral or disorderly in conduct, negligent of study or other duties, or who shall be, in their judgment, on any account a dangerous or unprofitable member of the Institution; Provided, that such student shall have opportunity to be reasonably heard in his own defence, and that the Faculty shall sit with due caution, and a tender regard to his rights and his welfare.

Sec. 4. 1st—The Faculty shall keep a Register, in which shall be entered the name of each student, his residence, the church of which he is a member, the Presbytery, if any, of which he is a candidate; the college, if any, of which he is an Alumnus, the time of his entering, and the time and mode of his leaving the Seminary.

2d—The Faculty shall keep a journal of their proceedings, which, if required, shall be laid before the Board of Directors.

3d—The Faculty shall make a report of the state of the Seminary to the Board of Directors, at each annual meeting, and at other times when required by the Board.

ARTICLE V.—OF THE COURSE OF STUDIES.

Sec. 1. The course of studies shall include Biblical Languages, Literature, Criticism, and Hermeneutics, General and Special Introduction to the Scriptures, the exegesis of so many of the principal books of the Scriptures as the time shall allow, Didactic and Polemic Theology, with a preliminary review of Metaphysics, Psychology and Ethics, in their relations to Theology, the Constitution, Polity, and History of the Church, Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral care, and Missionary instruction.

Sec. 2. The full course of studies shall occupy three sessions of such length as the Board of Directors shall order.

Sec. 3. Those students who shall have regularly pursued the prescribed course of studies, shall be admitted to an examination therein, by the Faculty and the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof; and if the examination shall be sustained, such students shall receive a diploma certifying the fact from the Faculty, with the consent and approval of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI.—OF PERSONAL RELIGION.

Sec. 1. It shall be regarded by all connected with the Seminary, as an object of primary importance, to promote a high grade of personal godliness in the students, as being an essential qualification for usefulness in the ministry.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Professors, by all proper means, explaining the nature of true godliness, inculcating the obligation to eminent godliness resting upon those who are candidates for the holy ministry, and indicating the means of promoting it, to encourage and cherish in their pupils its life and power, and an unreserved consecration of themselves to God.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the student, each remembering his high and peculiar obligations to holiness, the necessity of this to his own personal safety and acceptance with God, or usefulness in the ministry, and that it is a matter which, from the nature of the case, must be left chiefly with himself, as a concern between God and his own soul, diligently, earnestly, and constantly to maintain and promote, by all the divinely-appointed means, in his own heart and conduct, the spirit of true, living, and active religion; to observe the public and private ordinances of Divine worship, and in all things to have a conversation becoming their Christian relations and professions.

ARTICLE VII.—OF ADMISSION.

Sec. 1. The qualifications required in students for admission to the Seminary are, full communion in some branch of the Christian Church, a good reputation for consistent Christian character, a regular course of Academic study, of which evidence shall be furnished by a College degree or by examination, and, if from another Theological Seminary, a written certificate of good standing and honourable dismissal.

Sec. 2. Every student before admission to the Seminary shall subscribe the following engagement, in a book kept for that purpose, namely: "I do solemnly promise that I will diligently and faithfully attend on all the instructions and exercises of this Seminary, observe its rules of conduct relating to students, and obey the lawful requisitions and respect the admonitions of the Professors and of the Board of Directors, while I shall continue a student of the Institution."

ARTICLE VIII.—OF THE SEMINARY GROUNDS, BUILDINGS, AND LIBRARY.

The Faculty shall have the custody and control of the Seminary grounds, buildings and library, which shall be subject to such regulations as they may prescribe.

ARTICLE IX.—OF THE FUNDS AND FINANCIAL OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. All permanent funds established for the support of the Seminary shall be sacredly preserved inviolate, and it shall not be lawful for the Board of Directors, the Board of Trustees, or any person to withdraw, or to borrow, for any purpose, from any such fund, any money, securities, or other property without at the same time placing to the credit of such fund a value clearly and fully equivalent.

Sec. 2. The Board of Trustees, which shall appoint its own President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall have the custody of all the funds and property of the Seminary, with power to invest, manage, buy, sell, and otherwise dispose of the same for the use of the Seminary, in any manner not inconsistent with this Constitution, and subject in all things to the instructions of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 3. The Board of Trustees shall appoint a Treasurer who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Board, and whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Board, to keep all books of account, and to have the custody of all such books of account, securities, and other papers and documents relating to the finances, and of all funds and other property, except the Seminary buildings, the grounds connected therewith, and the library; and to present to the Board annually, and oftener when required, a clear and full report of the whole state of the finances, and of the transactions of the current year; and he shall be the keeper of the seal, and when required shall execute to the Board a bond in such penal sum, and with such securities as they shall prescribe, for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Sec. 4. The Board of Trustees shall make to the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting, and at other times when required, a clear and full report of the whole state of the finances, and of the transactions of the current year, or any part thereof, which Report shall be transmitted by the Board of Directors to the General Assembly.

ARTICLE X.—OFFICES OF THE FORMER DIRECTORS DECLARED VACANT.

The offices of the several Directors heretofore elected by the several Synods, who have had control of the said Seminary, are hereby declared vacant from and after the date of the adoption of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XI.—OF ALTERING THE CONSTITUTION.

This Constitution shall not be altered, amended, added to, or abrogated in whole or in part, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the Commissioners present, and voting at a regular meeting of the General Assembly.

CHURCH CORPORATIONS.

The Committee to whom was committed, by the last General Assembly, the Overture from the Presbytery of Genesee River, upon the subject of the corporate organization of churches in the State of New York, would respectfully report:

That the subject thus presented is one which, in the judgment of your Committee, demands the serious and patient consideration of the Assembly.

If, in any portion of our country, the Church of Christ is made, by the civil law, to stand in the position represented in this Overture, that very position would appear to be a standing reproach to the Christian name, and especially to the avowed principles of the Presbyterian Church.

It is proper, however, to inquire as to the facts set forth in this Overture; such inquiry being limited by act of Assembly to the State of New York.

It is asserted that some of the provisions of the general law of the State of New York, under which nearly all our churches in that State are incorporated, "conflict with the very fundamental principles of our ecclesiastical laws and regulations." The points of conflict mentioned are—

1. That any number of persons, not members of, nor amenable to, the Church proper, may become corporate members—may elect Trustees from their own number, and may thus manage all the affairs of the Corporation.

2. That the Trustees thus elected are legally empowered to act separate from, and even in defiance of, the Church proper, or any of its acknowledged authorities.

3. That the Church proper, as such, has and can have no corporate power whatever to manage its own affairs.

It is also asserted that, aside from the degradation and disgrace suffered by the Church, while standing in such a relation to the civil law and to the world without, this relation has been directly productive of other serious evils to the Church, instances of which are mentioned.

It is further claimed, that all the rights and privileges thus offered indiscriminately to the world at large by their charter, do of right belong exclusively to members of the Church.

A remedy for this state of things is sought for, and the counsel and aid of the Assembly in securing it is desired. One remedy is suggested, to wit, such legislative enactment as will secure to each and every church a civil charter which shall enable them to manage their own affairs in their own way.

The section of the law of New York referred to is that which defines the qualifications of voters in religious societies. It reads thus:

“And be it further enacted, That no person belonging to any church, congregation or society, intended by the third section of this Act, shall be entitled to vote at any election succeeding the first, until he shall have been a stated attendant on divine worship in the said church, congregation or society, at least one year before such election, and shall have contributed to the support of the said church, congregation or society, according to the usages and customs thereof; and that the clerk to the said Trustees shall keep a register of the names of all such persons as shall desire to become stated hearers in the said church, congregation or society, and shall therein note the time when such request was made; and the said clerk shall attend all such subsequent elections, in order to test the qualifications of such electors, in case the same should be questioned.”

In another section of the law it is provided, that those persons who are entitled to elect Trustees shall determine the amount of salary to be paid the minister; and that the Trustees shall be the contracting party, and shall pay the salary out of the revenues of the society.

There does not appear to be, in any other section of the law, anything to modify the features of the section just quoted.

In view of these premises, it is the opinion of the Committee that there is just cause for the complaint which has thus come up to the Assembly. If we have rightly interpreted the law which we have quoted, the position of the Church of Christ, under such corporate organization, is anomalous. In the very act of its incorporation its existence is ignored, and a society is created to rule in and reign over it. It would seem to be a right inherent in every organization of men, to elect their own members, or to fix their own terms of membership; but this right is denied, both to the Church thus ignored, and to the society thus created, and is assumed by the law itself. The terms fixed, however, would seem to be one of the most odious features of the law. By these terms, any man, good or bad, friend or enemy, with good intent or with evil intent, may, by an easy process, and at a cost of one dime, less or more, become a member, and exercise all the franchises which, by this law, are secured to any members of the Church of Christ. And what any one man may do, any number of men may do. What shall hinder? Neither the Church nor the corporate society has any power to say yea or nay. Assuming that the members of the Church are all her true friends, yet, by another code by which they are governed, their number is limited, and cannot be augmented upon occasion of strife. There is, however, no limit to the number of enemies of the Church, who may thus, without let, enter into her councils.

Thus it may happen—thus it has happened many times in the history of the Church—that persons who have no relationship to or sympathy with the Church of Christ, may enter in and control its affairs, against the will of the Church itself, always to the scandal of the Christian name, oftentimes to the great damage of individual churches, and sometimes to their utter subversion. It may happen, too—and it has happened—that many of the churches, thus organized, have not yet experienced all the evils to which they have been constantly exposed by the terms of their charter. Does this fact furnish ground for argument in favour of the existing state of things? If but one church had ever suffered any of these evils, yet, suffering from such cause, it would seem that while that cause exists, the whole Church should be aroused to all needful effort for removing it. We would even go further, and say, that if not one of our churches had ever experienced any evils which could be certainly traced to this source—if, in the good providence of God, men of the world had hitherto always been restrained from exercising those privileges which the law gives them—and if this position of the Church, in its relation to the civil law and to the world without, could not be seen, in any degree, to have neutralized its influence for good—yet the tendency to such evils, through this open and inviting door, would still demand that that door should be shut.

But who shall undertake to tell the sum of the injuries which have been done to our churches, and which are clearly traceable to this cause? We have no statistics upon which to rely in any attempt to sum them up; but taking what is known, as a basis of prudent estimate, we arrive at the conclusion that the sum of them is of sufficient magnitude to warrant the interposition of the Assembly. But in contemplating this subject, we are of opinion that the evils so clearly traceable to this cause are not the only ones, nor even the greatest, resulting from it. We find existing, from some cause or causes, those which are more all-pervading and more damaging to the true interests of the Church of Christ, than any which have been mentioned; and, while we do not assume that they are fairly attributable to this cause alone, we think they are just such in kind as such a cause must contribute to produce; or, being produced by other causes, must tend powerfully to augment and perpetuate.

We note but two prominent evils of this nature, and these we regard as having a close relationship the one to the other:

1. A manifest low estimate, on the part of members of the Church as such, of the calling and destiny of the Church of Christ in the world, and of the priceless privileges and dignity which are the rightful inheritance of her membership.

2. A manifest want of that respect for, and deference to the Church of Christ, on the part of the world, which the great Head of the Church has made it her privilege and her duty to command.

The first of these evils may rightfully, and without a paradox, be regarded as both the parent and the offspring of that which we have denominated one of its causes. The one has given life and nourishment to the other; and from the other has, in turn, received nourishment and strength. Thus both have grown together, an unsightly fungus upon the beautiful and symmetrical proportions of the body of Christ.

We cannot now inquire into the origin and history of the law in question, nor why it has ever been acquiesced in by the Church; but we may say that, if it could be regarded by the Church and the world as a despotic act of the civil power, perpetrated against the earnest protest of the Church, and submitted to only because all lawful means to prevent such an unwarrantable encroachment upon her rights had been used in vain—then might the Church still retain its self-respect, and still challenge the respect of the world, notwithstanding the anomalous position thus assigned her by the civil law. We do indeed believe that the whole spirit and letter of our Constitution is in opposition to the provisions of that law. So also are the interpretations of that Constitution by our General Assemblies. But, nevertheless, it would seem that, from some cause, the Church of Christ has come to be regarded by a large portion of its own membership as a mere voluntary association, possessing only such rights and privileges as its own wit and wisdom has secured to it, and owing only such duties as are self-imposed. As a matter of course, rights and privileges thus obtained may be bartered away for such consideration as its own folly or cupidity may suggest; and duties thus enjoined can have no very weighty sanction nor binding obligation. Thus it has come to pass that in some portions of the Church there is not a privilege of the sons of God, the possession of which is at all desirable by men of the world, that has not been put in the market. It is even a fact, and one which has recently become notorious, that there are men within the pale of the Church who openly justify such like views and practices, and who contend that they are justified also by the Constitution of our Church. It would seem to be with similar views and with the same spirit, that the law complained of makes a standing offer of these sacred privileges for sale—not exclusively to the highest bidders, but even to the lowest. Men of the world can desire no more than is thus, without their asking, freely accorded to them; nor can they desire so much for any legitimate purpose. They cannot desire to aid in promoting the spiritual interests of the Church; and if they could, they would still be most unfit judges of the best means of promoting them. Neither can they desire to promote her temporal interests; for the Church has no temporal interests to be promoted except such as are connected with, and are inseparable from, her spiritual interests. How, then, can there be harmony of counsel and unity of action, in respect to the true interests of the Church of Christ, between those who are the friends and those who are the enemies of that Church? Whenever and wherever, for the time being, there may seem to be such harmony and unity, it must of necessity be at a sacrifice on the one part or the other. It is never at a sacrifice on the part of her enemies. "The children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light." We are, then, forced to the conclusion, that whenever men of the world desire to possess, or possessing, desire to exercise, any of the peculiar privileges of fellow-citizens of the household of faith, it must be for purposes which are not and cannot be approved by the great Head of the Church. What right, then, has the Church to seek an alliance with such? What right has the civil law to force such alliance upon the Church?

The second prominent evil which we note is—"A manifest want of that respect for, and deference to the Church of Christ, on the part of the world, which the great Head of the Church has made it her privilege and her duty to command."

This evil, like every other, has its cause or causes. The natural antagonism of the Church and the world does not, in itself, appear to be an adequate cause. The world may hate the Church, and it is its own fault; but when it despises, it is too often the fault of the Church itself. It is not always optional with the world whether or not it will pay deference and respect to the Church. By a uniform and consistent exhibition of the pure principles of the gospel, the Church has power to extort such respect. Neither can the inconsistencies and crimes of individual members of the Church, however much they may and do contribute to augment this evil, be regarded as an adequate cause; for the world is not ignorant that the Church itself is at war with these crimes and inconsistencies. Her laws are against them; and, by the exercise of discipline, she testifies her respect for those laws.

Thus far may the Church, as a body, be acquitted of inviting the contempt of the world. But is not her tacit acquiescence in the degrading terms of that law by which her enemies are thrust into her counsels, a standing invitation to such contempt? Such, we believe the world regards it—as such they accept it—and such, indeed, it appears to be.

It is then in the important principle involved in the matter complained of in this overture, and in the various exhibitions and workings of that principle in the Church, and against the Church, that we think we find abundant reason for the interposition of the Assembly.

We are aware that it is sometimes more wise to endure, than to attempt to cure evils of such long standing; and although we do not yet perceive any dangers to be apprehended from the change sought for, yet we believe that every such attempt should be deliberately considered in all its bearings, and wisely planned and executed. That something ought to be done in these premises, and that something must ere long be done, the Committee fully believe—precisely what, by what means, in what way, and when, are questions which we do not feel competent now to decide—and which we beg leave, with deference, and with a single suggestion, to refer back to the Assembly.

It is represented in the overture, and for reasons which are there assigned, that some such powerful influence as that which can be exerted by our General Assembly will be essential to the accomplishment of the desired result.

Your Committee would, therefore, respectfully, and with deference, suggest that this whole subject be committed to another and a competent Committee, with instructions to frame a law or an amendment to the existing law, with such provisions as shall secure the objects specified in the overture, and to report to the next General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

Report of the Committee of Trustees of the General Assembly in the case of "Disabled Clergymen and the Indigent Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen."

In consequence of the early meeting of the General Assembly at New Orleans, in 1858, the last report of the Committee was made only to the 8th of April, or three weeks before the ordinary time. From that date to May 1st, 1859, the Committee have received forty-three applications for aid, which have come from thirty-two different Presbyteries.

Of these, fourteen were in behalf of clergymen, twenty-six for widows, and three for families of orphan children. Several of these ministers are very aged, and imbecile in mind as well as body. Others, in middle life, have been made helpless by consumption, palsy, and various distressing diseases, which have become chronic and incurable. One has been brought to a condition of almost blindness by a succession of complaints; first, hemorrhage of the lungs, which was followed, not long afterward, by a torpid and paralytic condition of his system, which affected his eyes not less than his limbs and organs of speech.

Some of the widows that have been aided were left, at the death of their husbands, with several helpless children, without any means of support.

Others are equally destitute, and unable to maintain themselves by reason of ill health. Among these forty-three applicants have been divided $4698, in different sums, from forty dollars up to two hundred and fifty, which if distributed equally would have given to each a fraction more than $108, which is a considerable increase over the average distribution of any former year. Every application, regularly made, has been favourably received.

The whole amount received by the Treasurer since April, 1858, has been $7952.16. To this add $1853.33 (the balance from last year,) and it makes $9805.49 that have been at the disposal of the Trustees for this object during the year ending on the 1st of May. The number of churches that have contributed is two hundred and thirty-five, representing sixty-five Presbyteries, leaving three thousand and eighty-nine of the former, and ninety-four of the latter, that have sent nothing since our last report, for this object, to our Treasurer.

In several instances, the largest drafts have come from Presbyteries that have given least, and in some cases, from those who have paid scarcely anything at all to this cause, though contributing with comparative liberality to others. More than three hundred dollars were given on the application of two Presbyteries, containing thirty-nine churches, who have not sent a penny to our Treasury within the year; nor so much as fifty dollars during the ten years since the making of annual collections was earnestly recommended by the Assembly. But notwithstanding the failure of so large a proportion of the churches to co-operate in this labour of love, the Committee believe that the interest in this cause is gradually extending and becoming stronger. More money has been contributed, a larger number have been relieved, and the average appropriation to the several cases has been materially increased.

The balance in the Treasury to meet expected applications is nearly $3000 greater than it has ever been at the end of any former year. The Committee have corresponded extensively with Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, of Synods, and with other prominent members of the Church. Letters of inquiry have been answered, and others, suggestive of duty, have been sent to all parts of our widely spread Church.

We have had communications from Nebraska Territory in the west, and from Maine in the east; from Michigan in the north, and Mississippi in the south. These letters have occasionally so multiplied as to require several hours of each day in the week to answer them; and sometimes it has been necessary to ask assistance in transcribing and recording papers which demanded immediate attention.

During the month of August, the Chairman procured supplies for his pulpit at home, and visited three Presbyteries, obtaining collections to the amount of several hundred dollars, and made arrangements to have the cause of disabled clergymen presented annually in every pulpit of the Presbytery.

Occasional visits for this purpose have been made at different times, at the solicitation of pastors who have proposed an exchange of pulpits.

Communications have been received by the Committee, of such a tenor as to warrant the belief that it is the purpose of several persons of wealth to remember this class of sufferers in their bequests.

In view of the success that has attended this cause hitherto, and its encouraging prospects, the Committee would repeat the opinion expressed in their former reports, that the present mode for meeting this exigency of the Church is the cheapest and best that could be adopted. That nothing more is needed to make it effective in reaching and relieving every case of need, than a faithful obedience of the churches to the recommendation reiterated by four Assemblies. Let "collections be made annually for this object, in all our churches," and the money thus contributed would be enough.

The Trustees would also bespeak a motion from the Assembly to the Presbyteries, in relation to many disabled clergymen, as well as widows and orphans, in need, within their bounds, who are suffering through the neglect of those whose official duty it is to investigate their case, and make the proper application for their relief. Several instances of the kind have incidentally come to the knowledge of the Committee, and they do not doubt that there are many more. Another suggestion worthy of the consideration of the Assembly, is the publishing in their Annual Minutes the form of a bequest of money for the benefit of disabled clergymen.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

In addition to the above, where copies are sent by mail, five cents additional must be forwarded to prepay postage.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is still a necessity for calling the particular attention of the Churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable, not only to the vigorous working, but to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism. And in this certainly every church, and every member of the church, will feel an interest.

SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly.

“An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows, viz.

“Whereas, The General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas, to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear to every Christian of our denomination to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore

“Resolved, That the Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of his own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong.”

FORMS OF BEQUESTS.

When bequests are made to the Institutions of the Church, let the following forms be carefully observed. Legacies are often lost to the cause which the testator designs to aid, by a defect in the will. When real estate or other property is to be given, let it be particularly described.

BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

To the Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of _____, or I devise a certain message, and tract of land, &c., to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Domestic Missions of the said General Assembly, according to the provisions of their charter.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

I give and devise to the Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the sum of _____, to be applied by said Board to the education of pious and indigent young men for the gospel ministry.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I bequeath to my executors the sum of _____ dollars in trust to pay over the same in _____ after my decease, to the person who, when the same shall be payable, shall act as Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Board, and under its direction, and the receipt of the said Treasurer shall be a full and legal acquittance of my said executors for the same.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

To the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of _____, or I devise a certain message and tract of land, &c., to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Publication, according to the provisions of their charter.

CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE.

The Church Extension Committee of the General Assembly is not incorporated, but the following form of bequest, it is supposed, would be valid.

I bequeath to my executors the sum of _____ dollars, in trust, to pay over the same in _____ after my decease, to the person who, when the same shall be payable, shall act as Treasurer of the Church Extension Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Committee, and under its directions, and the receipt of the said Treasurer shall be a full and legal acquittance of my said executors for the same.

CORRECTION.

The statement in the Report of the Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, as to the donation to the Library of that Institution by the Rev. Dr. William M. Engles, is incorrect. Instead of "$500 worth of books," it should have been Five Hundred Volumes; which are worth several times the amount specified, many of them being rare and valuable. This correction is made at the request of the Faculty of the Seminary.

STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, if they have no printed blanks, after the form on page 753 of these Minutes. Blanks can always be obtained gratis on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Philadelphia, not later than the first day of June.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterian Reports should be made out at or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery for ratification and sanction.

 Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
